MEDIA SERVICES

Colorado

Press Luncheons: Bill McCartney will hold Monday press conferences starting Sept. 6 through Nov. 22 in the Dal Ward Center (note: there will be no conference on Sept. 27). Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., with McCartney starting the conference at Noon.

Player Interviews: Interviews with Colorado Players are allowed Monday through Thursday between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and after practice Monday through Wednesday. Assistant coaches are available anytime, at their discretion.

Lockerroom Policy: Colorado's lockerroom, home and road, is open to all members of the media (male and female), following a 10-minute cooling off period after games and scrimmages. The lockerroom is closed during the week.

Video Highlights: Colorado football highlights can be obtained through Mark McIntosh or John Allen of KCNC-TV in Denver (303/830-6321).

Big Four Huddle: A regional college football luncheon is held Tuesdays (11 a.m. to 1 p.m.) at Brooklyn's in Denver, and includes telephone and in-person interviews with coaches and players from four area colleges: CU, Colorado State, Air Force and Wyoming. All members of the media are invited to attend.

Weekly Releases: Colorado's weekly news release will be available through a FAX network that is now being utilized by most major conferences. There will be no more weekly mailings, as media members can call one number and access a menu that will provide information on demand. For further details, call the CU Athletic Media Relations office at 303/492-5626.

Big Eight

Monday Coaches Briefing: The Big Eight offers Monday telephonic press conferences throughout the year. Media interested in participating should call the league office at 816/471-5088. McCartney is on weekly at 11:05 a.m. mountain time, and the conference runs every Monday from Aug. 30 through Nov. 15.

Video Highlights: The conference offers a satellite highlights package weekly during the season. The time is 1-1:30 p.m. mountain time on Spacenet 4, Transponder 8 (channel 4), Frequency 3,780 Mhz, Standard Video, 6.2, 6.8 Audio. The service is available every Tuesday from Aug. 31 through Nov. 15. (Trouble number: 402/472-2413).

Weekly Releases: All Big Eight schools and the league office will offer a way to obtain their news releases this year. Through Info-Connection of Atlanta, Ga., releases, statistics, game notes, schedules and other information will be available through a "Fax-on-Demand" Network. This system will allow the media to retrieve information easily and instantaneously, rather than delayed via the mail service. Everything can be done through the handset of a FAX machine; as a result, schools and the league office have eliminated the weekly mailings. To participate, media members can contact the CU Athletic Media Relations office or the Big Eight Conference office at 816/471-5088.

The Bowl Consortium

Since 1990, college football has worked to develop a pair of bowl game consortiums, trying to guarantee the best possible matchups for the post-season bowls.

This is the second year that an agreement will be in effect among several entities. Here's a look at the particulars of the agreement:

Consortium I: Orange Bowl (Big 8 champion vs. At-Large*)
Sugar Bowl (SEC champion vs. At-Large*)
Cotton Bowl (SWC champion vs. At-Large*)
Fiesta Bowl (At-Large* vs. At-Large*)

*—A pool of five teams make up the "At-Large" participants for Consortium I. They are the champions of the ACC and the Big East, along with Notre Dame and two other teams from the Big 8, ACC, SWC, Big East or Pac-10.

Consortium II: Gator Bowl, John Hancock Bowl.

For three second teams of the Big 8, ACC, SWC, Big East or Pac 10 conferences not selected for the Consortium I at-large pool. The John Hancock Bowl will make two picks of Coalition teams.

Notes: If the top two ranked teams come from among Notre Dame and the ACC and Big East champions, they will play in the Fiesta Bowl. Otherwise, the ACC and Big East champions are guaranteed a bid in the Cotton, Sugar or Orange bowls. The Fiesta would then choose from the remaining at-large pool teams. The three teams not selected for the Consortium I at-large pool will belong to the Consortium II bowls. There are financial hardship clauses within the agreement, as well as provisions not to have any rematches of teams that met earlier in the season.

Conference Bowl Agreements: Here's a look at where conference teams are contractually bound to play in the postseason (*—denotes the six-bowl coalition):

Atlantic Coast: Champion (Orange, Sugar or Cotton), Second Team (*Coalition), Third Team (Peach), Fourth Team (Hall-of-Fame)

Big East: Champion (Orange, Sugar or Cotton), Second Team (*Coalition), Third Team (Sunshine)

Big Eight: Champion (Orange), Second Team (*Coalition), Third Team (Aloha)

Big Ten: Champion (Rose), Second Team (Citrus), Third Team (Holiday), Fourth Team (Hall-of-Fame)

Pac Ten: Champion (Rose), Second Team (*Coalition), Third Team (Freedom), Fourth Team (Alamo)

Southeastern: Champion (Sugar), Second Team (Citrus), Third Team (Gator), Fourth Team (Peach), Fifth Team (Sunshine)

Southwest: Champion (Cotton), Second Team (*Coalition), Third Team (Alamo)

Western Athletic: Champion (Holiday), Second Team (Aloha or Copper), Third Team (Copper, if Aloha selects second team)

The champions of the Big West and Mid-America conferences meet in the Las Vegas Bowl. The only bowl with no contractual obligation to any team or conference is the Independence, bowls with one opening for any at-large team are the Copper, Freedom, Liberty and the Aloha, if the latter passes on the second Western Athletic Conference team. The Liberty Bowl is contracted to take Army or Navy if one is the winner of the Commander-in-Chief Trophy and has at least seven wins (Air Force is in the mix in future years but not for 1993); otherwise, the Liberty will select two at-large teams.

The University of Colorado

Recognized as the leading comprehensive research university in the Rocky Mountain region, the University of Colorado combines a diverse student body with a distinguished faculty to create a lively and refreshing academic environment.

Located at the base of the rugged and beautiful Rocky Mountains, the University of Colorado campus and its distinctive architecture attract students from all over the world. The main campus in Boulder is just 25 miles from Denver and has students representing every state in the union and 70 foreign countries. The enrollment on the Boulder campus is just over 25,000, with an additional 13,000 students studying at the Health Sciences Center (Denver) and at campuses located in Denver and Colorado Springs.

The University of Colorado is composed of five colleges and five professional schools, offering more than 4,000 courses in 140 fields of study. The colleges are Arts and Sciences, Business and Administration, Engineering and Applied Science, Environmental Design and Music; the schools are Graduate, Graduate School of Business, Education, Journalism and Law.

Authorized by an act of legislation in 1861 and opened on September 5, 1877, the university has played a key role in the development of the state and the Rocky Mountain region. The university itself is governed by an independent board of nine elected regents, the President, and the Faculty Senate.

In keeping with its cosmopolitan atmosphere and the sense of responsibility to the community, the university provides facilities and sponsorship for a broad range of student activities. The 786-acre campus includes 220 buildings. Principal campus facilities include the four million volumes of Norlin Library, the Academic Computing Services, the University Museum, the dance studios, numerous research institutions and specialized laboratory facilities, and the Fiske Planetarium, one of the finest planetarium facilities in the world.

In recent studies, CU ranked No. 1 in the nation in productivity as measured by research and development expenditures per faculty member and ranked 11th among public U.S. universities and 20th overall in federally funded research. CU-Boulder has played a major role in the NASA space program, designing and building instruments that have flown on several missions into outer space. Among the many prestigious members of the CU faculty is Thomas Cech, winner of the 1989 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

The University of Colorado at Boulder's scenic location is ideal for participation in numerous recreational and sports activities. In addition to the intercollegiate programs in the Big Eight Conference for men and women, Colorado offers over 30 club and 27 intramural sports that involve the majority of the student body. The on-campus Recreation Center is one of the finest college facilities in the country and provides services such as an Olympic-size swimming pool, an indoor glass-enclosed ice skating rink, basketball courts, indoor running track, handball, racquetball, and tennis courts along with sauna and weight rooms.

With an impressive set of facilities and high academic standards, the University of Colorado aims to provide a challenging and integrated education for its students. Through a wide variety of plays, exhibits, concerts, films, workshops, and lectures the university supplements the rigors of academia with the challenges of the real world. In this way, the University of Colorado provides a well-rounded and diverse educational opportunity for all types and interests of students.

The Dal Ward Athletic Center

The 1990-91 athletic season is landmark for the University of Colorado in two areas. The year produced national championships in football (its first) and skiing (its 14th), and the men's basketball team reached the NIT Final Four.

That was also the year that the magnificent Dal Ward Athletic Center became a reality. The entire construction process was completed in less than nine months, from ground-breaking in December, 1990, to completion the following August.

The $14 million building was completely funded through private donations. This multi-functional, state-of-the-art structure is one of the top facilities anywhere in college athletics.

The Dal Ward Center boasts 92,000 square feet that includes a massive academic center, sports medicine and weight training centers, a full-service kitchen and daily dining area, an auditorium, men's and women's lockerrooms, a player's lounge and offices for athletic administration and coaches.

Construction on the project actually began in November, 1990, with the demolition of the old team house building, which had stood in the north end of Folsom Field since its erection in 1967. The foundation was dug and concrete poured over the next couple of months, with construction of the actual building starting in February, 1991. The structure was available for the football team's use by mid-August, with the remainder of the building completed later that fall.

The building is named for Dallas Ward, the football coach who led CU into the Big Seven Conference in 1948. Ward was the head coach for the Buffaloes for 11 seasons (1948-1958), compiling a 63-41-6 record, which made him the third-winningest coach in CU history at the time. His teams, noted for the single wing offense, were a constant threat to Oklahoma's supremacy in the Big Seven Conference.

The Nicholas R. Petry Auditorium

The facility has several outstanding attributes, which benefit both the athletic department and the entire CU—Boulder campus. The tile roof, native stone walls and traditional Italianate architecture were selected to compliment the style of the Boulder campus. The Center also establishes a new sense of entry to the campus coming from the north. The building features a dramatic two-story entry and lobby space with a grand staircase.

The Dal Ward Center allows CU athletics to provide a facility that is competitive with equivalent successful NCAA athletic programs. "We have built something that will truly give our athletes a chance to compete with the best," athletic director Bill Marolt said. "This is a modern, updated facility where we can accommodate the needs of the athletes on and off the field," added football coach Bill McCartney.

The building was designed by the architectural firm of Sink Combs Dethlefs of Denver, with construction performed by Gerald H. Phipps, Inc.

Mascot/Nickname

The University of Colorado has the most unique mascot in all of intercollegiate athletics, a real buffalo named Ralphie. The live buffalo mascot, actually "Ralphie III," has continued the tradition of leading the football team out on the field both at the start of the game and second half.

It is truly one of the special sights that exists anywhere in college or professional sports, especially for opposing teams, who often stop in their tracks watching the massive buffalo round the end zone and head directly at their sideline.

The buffalo first appeared in 1934, three weeks after a contest to select an official school nickname by the Silver and Gold newspaper had come to an end and "Buffaloes" was the winning entry. For the final game of the '34 season, some students paid $25 to rent a buffalo calf mascot along with a real cowboy as his keeper. It took the cowboy and four students to keep the calf under control on the sidelines, a 7-0 win at the University of Denver on Thanksgiving Day.

Prior to 1934, CU athletic teams usually were referred to as the "Silver and Gold," but other nicknames teams were sometimes called included Silver Helmets, Yellow Jackets, Hornets, Arapahoes, Big Horns, Grizzlies and Frontiersmen. The campus newspaper announced the contest in the fall of 1934, with a $5 prize to go to the author of the winning selection. Claude Bates of New Madrid, Mo., and James Proffitt of Cincinnati, Ohio, were co-winners for the prize as both submitted Buffaloes as their entry. Athletic Director Harry Carlson, graduate manager Walter Franklin and Kenneth Bundy of the Silver and Gold were the judges. Through the years, synonyms which quickly came into use included "Bisons," "Bufs," "Thundering Herd," "Stampeding Herd," "Golden Avalanche," and "Golden Buffaloes."

The first buffalo, "Mr. Chips," was eventually given to the University by Mahlon White. The buffalo was a regular at CU home games through the 1950's and was cared for by a men's honorary.

The CU football teams were without a mascot for several years before the original Ralphie made its first appearance at a CU function in 1966 (and as a six-month-old calf). For awhile, she was billed as Ralph, the name given by the student body. An astute fan soon discovered that the buffalo was in fact a girl, thus the name alteration to Ralphie.

Ralphie attended every CU home football game for 13 years (including bowl games), and retired at the end of the 1978 season.

Ralphie's replacement on the sidelines was Ralphie II, making her first-ever appearance at CU's final home game of the 1978 season. The buffalo's original name was Moon, short for Moonshine, but the name Ralphie had become so popular and traditional that it was restored. The Bank of Boulder, a significant contributor through the years to the Ralphie program, purchased and donated Ralphie II to CU. At the age of 12, and after serving the Buffs for 10 years, Ralphie II passed away on Sept. 19, 1987, following a 31-17 CU win over Stanford.

Colorado's latest mascot, Ralphie III, was pressed into action earlier than anticipated. She was being trained for the 1988 season as Ralphie II was to retire following the 1987 campaign. But Ralphie III, after only five weeks of training, made her debut, Nov. 7, 1987, at the CU-Missouri game. And like the original Ralphie, the Buffs welcomed her with a 27-10 victory.

Ralphie III is an eight-year-old buffalo, weighing about 1,300 pounds and is able to reach speeds of up to 25 miles per hour. An orphan, she was donated to the athletic department by John and Shaaron Parker, and is kept at the Parker Ranch (which was also the home of Ralphie II).

Board of Regents

The members select their own chairman and vice chairman, and operate without any pay. Serving as chairman for the 1993-94 academic year is David Winn, with Susan Kirk as the vice chair. Millie Caraballo serves as Secretary of the University and the Board of Regents.

The Board governs all four campuses of the University of Colorado. It is charged constitutionally with the general supervision of the University and the exclusive control and direction of all funds of and appropriations to the University, unless otherwise provided by law.

A quick look at the nine current members of the Board of Regents:

KATHLEEN S. ARNOLD—Republican, Littleton businesswoman; graduated with a B.A. degree from the University of Colorado at Boulder in 1963; served in the Colorado House of Representatives 1978-83, Senate 1983-87, candidate for Lieutenant Governor 1978-83. She was elected in 1988 to a statewide seat on the Board for a six-year term, which will expire in 1994.

President Judith Albino

Dr. Judith E.N. Albino was named President of the University of Colorado on June 1, 1991, replacing Dr. William Baughn, who served as the four-campus system's president the previous year after the departure of Dr. Gordon Gee to Ohio State. Albino is the 17th president of CU and is the first woman to serve in the position.

Albino, 50, came to CU in 1990 as Vice President for Academic Affairs and Research, and Dean of the System Graduate School. She joined the university from the State University of New York (SUNY) at Buffalo, where she enjoyed an 18-year career.

She serves as chief executive officer of the four-campus organization, with three general campuses located in Boulder, Colorado Springs and Denver, and the Health Sciences Center (also in Denver). The University of Colorado is a public, comprehensive, doctoral degree-granting institution with a combined enrollment of over 43,000 students, a faculty and staff of 19,250 and an annual budget in excess of $700 million.

A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Albino earned a bachelor's degree in journalism in 1967 and a Ph.D. in education psychology in 1973. She joined SUNY-Buffalo in 1972 as a faculty member for the School of Dental Medicine. In 1978, her responsibilities included supervision of graduate students and administrative duties for the Department of Counseling and Psychology. She was appointed Associate Provost in 1984 and Interim Dean of the School of Architecture and Planning in 1987. She became Dean of the Graduate School in 1989.

For a time as Associate Provost at SUNY-Buffalo, she was responsible for the department of athletics, and directed the effort to upgrade Buffalo's 16 intercollegiate sports from Division III to Division I status in the NCAA. That transformation was complete last fall, as the school was granted

Division I membership in all sports except football (which will do so in 1993).

Dr. Albino is currently a member of the NCAA Gender Equity Task Force, and is co-chair of the NCAA President's Commission Subcommittee on Gender Equity.

She served as a Fellow in Higher Education Administration for the American Council on Education in 1983-84. She also was named a Fellow for the World Health Organization Collaborating Center for Research on Health in Housing for 1988-90. She has also written numerous scholarly articles and monographs in her areas of specialty, dentistry and psychology.

Albino is a member-at-large on the board of directors for the American Association of Dental Research and served as president of the AADR Behavioral Sciences Group in 1983-84. She currently is treasurer and a member of the board of directors of the American Psychological Association.

Her first role at CU as vice president was as the chief academic officer representing the four CU campuses. In that position, she served as the primary liaison to the Colorado Commission on Higher Education, worked closely with the Board of Regents, and participated in activities that involved governmental and community relations. Her position also encompassed responsibility for development and implementation of all academic policies; long-range planning, including enrollment, human resources, funding and evaluation of academic programs; and development of research initiatives and technology management. She also coordinated final reviews of all academic program decisions and faculty personnel actions.

Born June 2, 1943 in Jackson, Tenn., she is married (Sal) and is the mother of two children, Austin (18) and Adrian (16). Albino has been a principal or contributing investigator in 10 grants and contracts, most involving psychology or dentistry.

Chancellor James Corbridge

James N. Corbridge, Jr., has served as Chancellor of the University of Colorado at Boulder since July 1, 1986, initially on an interim basis and then on permanent appointment.

Corbridge has served as CU's faculty representative to the Big Eight Conference since 1990, and has been appointed vice-chair for the 1993-94 academic year.

A professor of law and an authority on water law, Corbridge also is known on campus for his administrative skills and accomplishments. In his 28 years at CU, he has held many top-level administrative posts—as well as developing a distinguished teaching and research career in the School of Law.

Corbridge joined the CU faculty in 1965, coming to Colorado from the law firm of Lord, Day and Lord in New York. On the law faculty, Corbridge quickly developed an interest and expertise in natural resources, focusing on water and mining issues.

His enthusiasm for teaching was apparent to colleagues and students alike. In 1972, Corbridge was honored with the CU Teaching Excellence Award in recognition of outstanding skills in instruction. Over the year, he has taught basic property, future interests, mining law, oil and gas, real property security and conveyancing, and water law. Currently, he teaches a course each year in addition to his administrative commitments.

Corbridge's leadership qualities came to the attention of campus administrators not long after his arrival. In 1970, he was named vice president for student affairs, followed by an appointment as vice president for student and minority affairs in 1972.

Two years later, he was named vice chancellor for academic affairs, a position he held until 1977. Then, from 1979 to 1981, Corbridge served as interim vice chancellor for academic services. He was acting vice chancellor for academic affairs in 1986 when he became Chancellor.

In the midst of his varied career, Corbridge has maintained his research and writing interests, focusing on the area of water law. In 1977 and 1985, he was a Visiting Scholar at the Institute for Advanced Legal Studies at the University of London. And in 1985, Corbridge was a Visiting Scholar at the University of Linköping in Sweden.

Corbridge and three of his colleagues published a third edition of Water Resource Management: A Coursebook in Law and Public Policy in 1987. He has published numerous articles on a variety of issues related to natural resources. He was co-founder of CU-Boulder's Natural Resources Law Center and continues to serve on its Faculty Advisory Board.

As Chancellor, Corbridge has taken a leadership role in crafting a strategic plan for the Boulder campus. He has emphasized the value of cultural and ethnic diversity on campus, especially in the recruitment and retention of minority students, staff and faculty. Corbridge continues to focus attention on the need for an outstanding undergraduate experience at CU-Boulder. In addition, he has placed a high priority on supporting the arts and humanities as critical elements of a university community.

Born in Mineola, N.Y., Corbridge lived most of his early years on Long Island. He earned a bachelor's degree from Brown University in 1955, majoring in English and American Literature. He graduated from Yale Law School in 1963. He has two children, Loren and Stuart, and is married to Pauline Hale.

Athletic Director Bill Marolt

Bill Marolt

Bill Marolt is in his tenth year as athletic director, only the third in University of Colorado history, accepting the position on Aug. 3, 1984.

Marolt, 50, succeeded Eddie Crowder as the athletic department boss officially on Sept. 1, 1984. Crowder held the post from 1965 until he stepped down. Harry Carlson, CU's athletic director from 1927 until 1965, is the only other to ever hold the title.

Marolt has applied a no-nonsense yet personal approach to his position in his nine years at the reins of the CU athletic department, and has rapidly become one of the finest young athletic directors in the country. Buff athletic teams have made great strides in his short tenure to regaining national prominence that was enjoyed in the early 1970's.

The athletic department has operated within its budget every year under his direction, and at the same time has grown in both size and stature. He has instituted many programs that are in place at CU that are unique to college athletics.

One of the projects he is most proud of in his tenure is the Dal Ward Athletic Center, an effort that he has guided from concept to reality. Spearheading a $14 million fund-raising campaign for the building, he has been involved in every facet of the state-of-the-art structure, including planning, design, layout and most importantly, fund-raising. His efforts landed multi-million dollar donations which enabled construction on the building to begin following the 1990 football season.

He was also a member of the Denver Organizing Committee, which hosted the 1990 NCAA Final Four along with the University, is on the Colorado Winter Games Committee, and is chairman of the Big Eight Conference's television committee.

Marolt came to CU from the United States Ski Team, where he was Alpine Director since 1978. He was responsible for the overall administration of the alpine program year-round in addition to his coaching duties.

At the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, Marolt's skiers won five medals, including three gold, culminating a tremendous coaching career for Marolt.

Born September 1, 1943 in Aspen, Marolt graduated from Aspen High School in 1961 where he lettered in both skiing and football. He went on to attend the University of Colorado where he enjoyed a very successful skiing career, both on the collegiate and national circuits. He was a member of the World Championship Ski Team in 1962 and 1966 and a member of the 1964 Olympic team.

He earned a bachelor of science degree in marketing from CU in 1967. The following summer he was named head coach of the Buff Ski Team, a position he would hold from 1969 through 1978.

What Marolt did with the CU Ski Team is virtually unmatched by any other coach in any sport on the college level. Over the course of 10 seasons, he piloted the Buffs to seven straight NCAA championships. His recruiting was the best in the nation, proven by 30 of his athletes winning All-American honors those 10 seasons (15 in alpine, 10 in jumping, and five in nordic).

At CU, Marolt also worked closely with the University's ski club and recreation department to develop a women's ski program, which eventually led to the establishment of a women's varsity ski team.

Following his success at CU, Marolt moved on to the U.S. Ski Team, based in Park City, Utah. As Alpine Director, Marolt prepared, monitored, and controlled a budget each year that totaled almost two million dollars. He was responsible for organization and administration, fiscal management, public relations, staffing and personnel.

It was these characteristics that put him ahead of the pack when then-CU President Dr. Arnold Weber selected a successor to Crowder.

Marolt is married to the former Constance (Connie) Parfet. The couple have two children, Katy (20) and Shannon (17).

In 1991, he was honored with the President's Award from Colorado Ski Country USA, which cited his efforts in CU's two national championships (football and skiing) during the 1990-91 academic year and his contributions over the years to the skiing industry in the state.

Head Coach Bill McCartney

Bill McCartney is in his 12th season as head football coach at the University of Colorado. The 20th head coach in CU history is 74-51-4 at the reins of the Buffaloes, having guided the school to its first national championship in football in 1990.

McCartney, who also coaches the CU quarterbacks (he assumed that role in February, 1993), has also guided CU to three Big Eight titles and a 47-27-3 mark in conference play, both of which are school bests.

McCartney was hired on June 9, 1982, taking over a team which had just suffered through three of its worst seasons in an otherwise tradition-rich football program. He came to Colorado from the University of Michigan, where he had spent the previous eight years on Bo Schembachler's staff. Among his credits were reputations as a great recruiter and a great defensive coach.

It would take McCartney just four years to put Colorado back on the football map, as CU won the NCAA's Most Improved Team honor in 1985. Four years later, the school attained its first-ever No. 1 ranking (1989), with CU's first bowl victory in 19 seasons and the national championship to follow just one year later.

He has coached more games (129) than any other coach in CU history, and only Fred Folsom (15 seasons) and Myron Witham (12) have coached more seasons than "Mac." He has also taken CU to more bowls, seven, than any before him.

Upon his arrival in Boulder, he had but 94 days to hire a staff and prepare for his first season at CU. When the first game against California rolled around some three months later, he had only 77 players on scholarship, and only 73 in uniform to line up and play.

His first three teams posted records of 2-8-1, 4-7 and 1-10. The offense came alive his second season, primarily the passing game, helping CU to improve its record. His third team was better than the record showed (four of the 10 losses by seven points or less), but was also injury plagued. Though those three teams passed for over 6,700 yards, the rushing game was almost nonexistent and the defense nowhere near McCartney's standards.

Thus the time was right for a change, and without question, McCartney pulled off the most bold and daring move in CU football history. He announced in March of 1985 that the Buffaloes were switching to the wishbone formation on offense. What did switching from a passing to a running game do for CU in 1985, McCartney's fourth year? Colorado posted a 7-5 mark, the most wins in seven years at the school, and netted the Buffs the NCAA's most improved team honor. CU also went from last to ninth in rushing offense and from last to first in net punting, two of the most dramatic turnabouts in NCAA history. And CU's 4-3 league mark, which tied the Buffs for third place, helped McCartney gain the Big Eight's "Coach-of-the-Year" award.

Colorado also earned its first bowl appearance in almost a decade in 1985, losing to Washington 20-17 in the Freedom Bowl.

In 1986, the Buffs staggered to an 0-4 start, but McCartney's fifth team never threw in the towel. Colorado rebounded to post a 6-1 mark in the Big Eight, finishing second in the league race, CU's best effort since winning it in 1976. And McCartney's Buffs became the first at CU to defeat Nebraska (20-10) since 1967.

A win over Oklahoma would have given CU an Orange Bowl berth, but the 28-0 loss to the Sooners didn't eliminate CU from the post-season picture. Colorado made its second straight bowl appearance, though losing to Baylor 21-9 in the Bluebonnet Bowl, and finished 6-6 for the year. The 1987 Buffaloes posted a 7-4 record, but the team was left out when the bowl committees made their selections.

His 1988 Buffaloes posted the best record at CU since 1976 by going 8-4 (with a new-fangled "I-bone" offense), which included a win at No. 19 Iowa. Mac's team again battled the Big Eight's top two to the wire, losing 17-14 to Oklahoma and 7-0 at Nebraska. (CU's 4-3 mark in league play placed CU fourth.) However, the Buffs fell short again in postseason play, losing 20-17 to Brigham Young in the Freedom Bowl. The biggest stride the 1988 team made was a return to the national Top 20 for the first time in over a decade.

As the unanimous National Coach-of-the-Year selection for 1989 (UPI, Kodak/AFCA, Bear Bryant/FWAA, The Sporting News, Dodge/Maxwell Football Club, CBS/Chevrolet), McCartney's eighth CU team roared to an 11-0 regular season record and the first-ever No. 1 national ranking in CU's 100-year football history. The Buffs won their second outright Big Eight title, to go with 1961, which earned McCartney unanimous Coach-of-the-Year honors in the league. Colorado became the first team since 1969 to defeat Oklahoma and Nebraska in the same year, and all told the Buffs defeated five top 25 and three bowl teams. Only a 21-6 loss to Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl kept CU from being crowned national champion, but the No. 4 final ranking was still the second best ever for the Buffaloes at the time.

His ninth Colorado team won the biggest prize possible in college football: the national championship. The 1990 team, with an 11-1-1 record, was also the first Buffalo team to claim back-to-back Big Eight titles. He was again named (by UPI) as the league's Coach-of-the-Year, the third time he has been afforded that honor.

Colorado's 10-9 win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl paved the way for the Associated Press to select the Buffaloes as the 1990 national champion. Nine members of the 1990 team were drafted into the NFL, and three players earned Colorado's first-ever unanimous All-America honors (Eric Bieniemy, Joe Garten and Alfred Williams). Williams won the Butkus Award, with Garten finishing second for the Outland Trophy and Bieniemy third in the Heisman Trophy race.

His 1991 team became the first at CU to win three straight Big Eight titles, going 6-0-1 in league play. He did this despite having the second-youngest team in the nation's Top 25, as he started nine freshmen or sophomores and utilized 24 of the pups in each week's game plan. Center Jay Leeuwenburg earned unanimous All-America honors, Mac's fourth unanimous selection in two years. His 10th CU team went 8-3-1 overall, earning McCartney's sixth bowl appearance (the Buffs lost to Alabama, 30-25, in the Blockbuster Bowl).

McCartney and his staff did another excellent coaching job in 1992, leading the Buffs to a 9-2-1 record, despite a total overhaul in the offensive system. The Buffs switched gears to a one-back, more pass-oriented attack, and the season produced a school and conference record 3,271 yards passing. The team was also McCartney's best defensively, surrendering only 278 yards a game and boasting the Thorpe Award winner in cornerback Deon Figures. The '92 squad also featured tackle Jim Hansen, CU's first Rhodes Scholar in 30 years. The 9-1-1 regular season mark was the fifth best in school history, and CU went to its seventh bowl under McCartney, a 26-22 loss to Syracuse in the Fiesta Bowl.

Since 1985, when he made the bold move to the wishbone, McCartney's teams have posted a 67-26-3 record and have had a winning record in conference play all eight seasons. His 1988 to 1992 teams went 25 straight games without a loss in the Big Eight, the fourth longest streak in conference history. With a contract that runs through 2005, it is very likely that Mac will become the school's winningest football coach ever.

Born on Aug. 22, 1940, McCartney was raised in Riverview, Mich. He graduated from Riverview High School in 1958, having earned 11 letters in three sports (football, basketball and baseball). He was captain of the football and basketball teams his senior year.

The 53-year-old McCartney attended the University of Missouri on a football scholarship and lettered three times as a center-linebacker for the Tigers. He played in two Orange Bowl games and was named second-team All-Big Eight as a senior.

He graduated from Missouri in 1962 with a degree in education and immediately turned his attention to coaching. His first job was as an assistant at Joplin (Missouri) High in 1963 and 1964. He then moved back to Michigan to coach the basketball team at Holy Redeemer High School in Detroit. He coached there from 1964 to 1968.

The next stop for Mac was at Divine Child High in Dearborn, where he was the head basketball coach from 1969 to 1973 and the head football coach from 1971 to 1973. His '69 hoop team won the Detroit Catholic League title, and his '73 team the state class B crown.

His three Divine Child football teams compiled a 30-5 record, winning the DCL title all three years and the state championship in '71 and '73.

His feats of winning state titles in football and basketball in 1973 made him the first coach ever in the Michigan prep ranks to win both the same season. His basketball teams logged a 157-49 mark for 10 years in the high school ranks.

McCartney joined the University of Michigan coaching staff as a defensive coach in 1974, coaching the outside linebackers for the next three seasons. In 1977, he took over the chores as Michigan's defensive coordinator, a position he held until he departed for CU. One publication had Mac rated as one of the top five defensive coordinators in the nation in 1981, and he is still considered as one of the finest recruiters in the country.

McCartney gained national recognition at Michigan in 1980 when he devised a scheme to stop Purdue quarterback Mark Herrmann (using six defensive backs to neutralize Herrmann and his receivers). McCartney was named the Big Ten's "player" of the week for his plan.

Bill is married to the former Lynne (Lyndi) Taussig of Santa Monica, Calif. The couple have four grown children: Michael, Thomas, Kristyn and Marc, and are the grandparents of one (Timothy). Coach McCartney is extremely active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and was voted the FCA's "Man-of-the-Year" in Colorado for 1986.

He has also served on the coaching staffs in the 1987 Blue-Gray Game (North), the 1989 Hula Bowl (West) and 1990 East-West Shrine Game (West), and the 1992 Japan Bowl (head coach of the West).

McCARTNEY'S RANKED TEAMS

Colorado reappeared in the national polls under McCartney and his staff in 1988 for the first time in a decade. Since that time, the Buffs are 40-9-3 when they have been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25. Colorado is 19-3-2 as a top 10 team, and is 10-1-1 as a top five team. As the No. 1 team in the nation, the Buffaloes are 1-1. The only teams to defeat a McCartney squad that has had a national ranking have been Nebraska (twice), Brigham Young, Notre Dame, Illinois, Baylor, Stanford, Alabama and Syracuse. (Tennessee, Nebraska and Oklahoma registered the ties). As a ranked team against another ranked team, the Buffs are 10-7-2 under Mac.

The Assistant Coaches

BOB SIMMONS

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line Coach

Coaching Experience—Is in his sixth year at Colorado, his second as defensive line coach. McCartney named him Assistant Head Coach on April 27, 1993, as he is only the second assistant in McCartney's tenure to earn the title and responsibilities. He coached the outside linebackers his first four years in Boulder after joining the McCartney staff on March 14, 1988. He is also responsible for the punt and kickoff return teams. His punt return team was ranked second in the nation in 1989 and fourth in 1990. He started coaching in 1975, as he was the receivers coach at his alma mater, Bowling Green State University, where he worked under his former collegiate coach, Don Nehlen. After two years at Bowling Green, he moved on to the University of Toledo where he was the outside linebackers coach for three seasons (1977-79). He then rejoined Nehlen at West Virginia in 1980, where he would coach the outside linebackers for eight years (1980-87) prior to coming to CU.

Education—Graduated from Bowling Green in 1971 with a double bachelor's degree in physical education and history. He received his master's in college student personnel from Bowling Green a year later.

Athletic Participation—Lettered three times as a linebacker at Bowling Green, garnering all-Mid American Conference honors as a senior when he had 150 tackles. He lettered in football, basketball and track at Shaw High School in East Cleveland, Ohio.

Personal—Born June 13, 1948 in Livingston, Ala. He is married to the former Linda Davidson, and the couple have three children, Brandon (17), Nathan (16), and Lelanna (10). In addition to coaching at Bowling Green, he was also an academic advisor, career counseling specialist, placement officer and instructor at his alma mater for five years (1973-77).

Bob Simmons

MIKE HANKWITZ

Defensive Coordinator/Outside Linebackers Coach

Coaching Experience—Is in his ninth year overall at CU, his sixth as the defensive coordinator. He returned to coaching the outside linebackers in 1992, the position he tutored his first three years on McCartney's staff (1985-87). He coached the inside linebackers in 1988, the secondary in 1990, and was not responsible for coaching a position in 1989 and 1991. He joined the CU staff on March 4, 1985, and another one of his responsibilities is coordinating CU's special teams. His punt team is the nation's number one rated unit over the last eight seasons (1985-92), twice leading the nation in net average (1985 and 1989). He started his coaching career in the fall of 1970, coaching the University of Michigan junior varsity team. He was on the defensive staff at Michigan the next two years before moving on to the University of Arizona. He coached the outside linebackers in 1973 and then added the defensive backs under his guidance as well starting in 1974. He went to Purdue with Coach Jim Young in 1977, where he coached the outside 'backers for the next five years (1977-81). He then moved on to Western Michigan in 1982, where he was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach until joining the CU staff.

A 1975 graduate of Michigan, he earned a bachelor's degree in general education and psychology. He lettered three seasons at running back under coach Bo Schembechler, earning second-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior and honorable mention accolades as a senior. As a senior, he played in nine games and had one of the biggest plays of the year when he detected a fake punt against Nebraska and aligned the defense in time to stop the play in CU's 27-12 comeback win. In his career, he had 53 tackles, five pass deflections and two interceptions. He joined the team as a walk-on, but was rewarded with a scholarship after his freshman season.

1993 Outlook

When Bill McCartney revealed a glimpse of Colorado's new offensive attack against Alabama in the 1991 Blockbuster Bowl, there were more than a few skeptics. After all, Colorado had risen to national prominence on the strength of its running game, a strength that was a major force in bringing CU three straight Big Eight Conference titles and its first national championship in 1990.

The critics were for the most part silenced when the Buffaloes went out and posted a 9-2-1 record in 1992, the transition year for the offense. Colorado averaged 401 yards a game on offense, and a stellar defense (which allowed only 278 yards per outing), allowed the offense the time it needed to suffer through the expected growing pains.

The major concern a year ago was how well would the Buffaloes adapt to their new-found passing game. That was answered when CU averaged 297 passing yards per game, with two receivers, Michael Westbrook and Charles Johnson, each accumulating over 1,000 receiving yards (only the fourth time in NCAA history that a pair of receivers on the same team accomplished that feat).

Ted Johnson

One problem that did emerge with the switch was the disappearance of a consistent running game, an area that McCartney and his coaches addressed at the end of last season, for the Fiesta Bowl and in spring drills this year. There were several contributing factors to the running game suffering a year ago: a youthful offensive line that was learning to pass protect, injuries, and tailbacks that were also getting used to the different blocking schemes. McCartney's goal is to get more balance as far as the running game is concerned, as well as to continue to develop what he has termed is the offense of the 90's.

Charles Johnson

While addressing the running game is the primary concern on the offensive side of the ball, on the defensive side the question will be who will step in and replace five of some of the best players in CU history. McCartney is looking to replace the likes of cornerbacks Deon Figures (the Jim Thorpe Award winner) and Ronnie Bradford, linebackers Greg Biekert (who led CU in tackles three straight seasons) and Chad Brown, and defensive tackle Leonard Renfro (who would have likely been a favorite for the Outland Trophy this fall had he not decided to come out early for the National Football League Draft). How good was that quintet? All five were selected in last April's NFL Draft, including Figures and Renfro in the first round.

Sam Rogers

The strengths of McCartney's 12th Colorado team will be speed (40 players ran 5.0 or better in spring timing drills, with 27 of those posting 4.5 or better), experience on offense, particularly at quarterback and receiver, and in the punting game, where CU has an All-American kicker in Mitch Berger.

CU might be the deepest team in the country at quarterback, led by Kordell Stewart, who set several school passing records last season as a sophomore. He was fifth in the nation in passing efficiency, and had a 9-1 record as a starter, missing the Oklahoma and Nebraska starts due to injuries. He will be backed up by Vance Joseph, who redshirted last season due to a shoulder injury (slight tears in his rotator cuff), Duke Tobin and Koy Detmer, who is penciled in to redshirt if injuries don't dictate otherwise.

There are several All-America candidates on offense, including Stewart, Westbrook, Johnson, tight end Christian Fauria and in this offense, whoever emerges at tailback if it's James Hill ended spring drills as the number one tailback, but Rashaan Salaam and Nathan Campbell received plenty of work. Lamont Warren was allowed to miss spring ball to run outdoor track, and when healthy, he's as good as they come. McCartney's quick to note that in this offense, you need several backs ready to go as they can all take a beating.

The cupboard on defense isn't bare, either. Outside linebacker Ron Woolfork is a leading candidate for the Butkus Award, and defensive backs Chris Hudson (cornerback) and Dwayne Davis (free safety) provide solid leadership in the secondary. Inside linebacker Ted Johnson, and defensive tackles Brian Dyet, Darius Holland and Shannon Clavelle all have previous experience as starters to add to the defensive depth.

The outside linebacker spot previously owned by Brown and opposite Woolfork is still up for grabs heading into the fall, with Sam Rogers owning the top spot on the depth chart after the spring. Greg Jones, who has worked to add almost 20 pounds to his frame since last season, and Daryl Price will push Rogers for playing time.

There will be a battle inside as well, as Biekert's position is one of the most important historically on CU's defense, with the main assignment of stopping the run. Jon Knutson, Matt Russell and Jeff Nabholz are all in the hunt, as is senior Billy Polk, who enjoyed an exceptional spring after moving inside from the outside.

It won't be easy to replace Figures and Bradford in the secondary, but look for several players to make a run at playing time. Dalton Simmons, Maurice Henriques, Deren Tadlock, Donnell Leomiti and Kenny Wilkins are all young and lack experience, but there's no question that the talent is on hand.

Chris Hudson

not by committee. Stewart is a candidate for the Davey O'Brien Award (for the nation's top quarterback), and is a potential Heisman Trophy candidate along with Westbrook and Johnson, who both could figure in the hunt for award depending on what they do as kick returners.

Bryan Stollenberg returns at center, and he will no doubt be the anchor of the offensive line. Derek West has switched from left tackle to right tackle, with Tony Berti moving from center to left tackle. Clint Moore and Chad Hammond ended the spring as the starting guards, but the unknown at this position is whether or not Craig Anderson will return from knee surgery (he has a redshirt year available if he does not). Jeff Brunner, a fifth-year senior who is still not 100 percent following knee surgery, has come over to offense from nose tackle, lining up at guard for the last six spring practices. Freshman redshirts Matt Lepsis, Chris Naeole and Gerald Ancar likely will figure into the two-deep mix as well.

Kordell Stewart

Lamont Warren

Brian Dyet

Greg Lindsey and Dennis Collier, a pair of fifth-year seniors, will be counted on heavily to fill the void, and both have waited patiently to get their shots in the limelight.

McCartney's CU teams have always emphasized special teams, as evidenced by the Buffs owning the nation's top punting game since 1985 and second-best punt return unit over the last four years. Berger is a near-unanimous preseason All-American punter, and less than 30 percent of his kickoffs have been returned over two seasons. He's the leading candidate to handle all the kicking chores, but there are a few freshman recruits who may push him at placekicker.

Colorado's non-league schedule has been called the toughest in the nation by The Sporting News in its 1993 preseason magazine. The Buffs open with home games against Texas and Baylor, travel to Stanford and then host Miami, Fla. prior to opening the conference season against Missouri. All told, CU's opponents had a 72-49-3 record last season, with five teams playing in bowl games and seven posting winning records.

And a final note: even though the offense that CU ran against Alabama was barely the foundation of what it is at present, the 25 points it produced against the eventual 1992 national champions are the most the heralded Crimson Tide defense has allowed in their 23-game winning streak.

Know Colorado Football

- Colorado posted a 9-2-1 record in 1992, its eighth straight winning season and fifth straight with at least eight wins (the latter is a school record). The Buffaloes own the nation's fifth best record, 39-7-3, over the past four seasons, with only Miami, Fla., owning fewer losses (4) than Colorado.
- Colorado was ranked No. 13 across the board in the final 1992 polls (Associated Press, USA Today/CNN Coaches and UPI/National Football Foundation). The Buffaloes have been ranked 66 consecutive weeks in the media balloting, adding to the school record, and 65 in a row (and 68 of the last 69) in the coaches balloting (which is combined between UPI and USA Today/CNN).
- Colorado has 38 returning lettermen, which includes 15 starters back from the 1992 team, and 24 players who have starting experience some time during their CU careers. Ten starters return on offense (losing only OT Jim Hansen), with five back on defense. Also returning is punter and kickoff specialist Mitch Berger.
- Bill McCartney is 74-51-4 in 11 seasons at Colorado. He has coached the most games (129) in Colorado history and is second in all-time victories (trailing the legendary Fred Folsom's 77). He has brought the CU football program back to national prominence; evidence of this is spending 66 straight weeks in the national polls and 35 national or regional television appearances since 1984.
- THE BUFFS IN THE BIG EIGHT ... Since 1985, CU is firmly established in the top three in the Big Eight Conference Standings. Here's a look at the league standings (conference games only) in that time frame: NEBRASKA 47-8-1; OKLAHOMA 45-9-2; COLORADO 43-11-2; OKLAHOMA STATE 25-29-2; IOWA STATE 20-34-2; MISSOURI 14-42; KANSAS 14-40-2; KANSAS STATE 10-45-1.
- Colorado has the best record in conference games in the nation over the past four years, as the Buffs are 25-1-2 in league play since 1989. Michigan's next at 28-2-2, and all other teams that have been members of conferences all four years have at least four losses. The Buffaloes posted the Big Eight's fourth longest unbeaten string at 25 games, which was snapped by last year's loss at Nebraska. The Buffs have posted a winning record in league play for eight straight seasons, another school first (the previous best before this streak was three).
- Colorado is 30-10 in reglar season road games since 1985, and have won 23 of the last 27 starts in enemy stadiums. The Buffaloes have won 17 of their last 19 Big Eight road games dating back to 1987 (with the losses coming at Nebraska in 1988 and 1992).
- Here's a look at where some of the Buffs stand on all-time charts at Colorado going into the 1993 season:
 - TB LAMONT WARREN is 23rd on the all-time rushing yards list (1,342 yards) and is tied for 29th on the scoring chart (90 points);
 - TB James Hill is 40th on the all-time rushing yards list (857 yards);
 - QB KORDELL STEWART is 11th on the all-time passing yards list (2,111) and is 12th on the total offense chart (2,237);
 - QB KOY DETMER is 20th on the all-time passing yards list (962);
 - WB MICHAEL WESTBROOK is second on the all-time receiving yards list (1,369 yards) and is 38th on the scoring list (80 points);
 - SE CHARLES JOHNSON is third on the all-time receiving yards list (1,365 yards);
 - OLB RON WOOLFORK is second on the all-time quarterback sacks list (26.5);
 - FS CHRIS HUDSON is tied for 12th on the all-time interceptions list (8).
- Since 1985, when the Buffs converted to the wishbone on offense and reversed the fortunes of the football program, the Buffaloes are 67-26-3. In these 96 games, CU has posted the following records (bowl games included):
 - 35-0-2 when amassing 400-plus yards total offense (16-0 with 500-plus);
 - 50-2-2 when scoring 24 or more points;
 - 49-2-3 when holding edge in time of possession (18-24 when not);
 - 36-3-1 when making 20-plus first downs;
 - 33-1-1 when converting over 50 percent on third down attempts;
 - 5-0-1 when passing for 300-plus yards (13-2-1 200-plus; 2-0-1 400+);
 - 16-0-1 when punting two or fewer times (22-5-1 with three or fewer);
 - 43-7-0 when scoring first (have won 37 of 40; 48-13-1 in Mac Era);
 - 43-10-1 when committing two or fewer turnovers (11-1-1 with zero);
 - 55-8-1 when average field position is CU30 or better (14-0 at CU40+);
 - 52-8-0 when holding opponents to 17 points or less (56-8 in Mac Era);
 - 32-0-0 when holding opponent to under 100 yards rushing;

- Though this year's recruiting class wasn't ranked as high in past years, 17 of the 19 high school signees received some kind of postseason All-American recognition. In the last four recruiting classes, a total of 58 of 83 recruits (70%) have been afforded some kind of All-America honor (and 51 of 63 in the last three years, 81%). Here's this year's list; honors are first-team, unless otherwise indicated (Prep Football Report is Tom Lemming's All-America listings, Who's Who is Joe Terranova's work):

1993 RECRUITING NOTES ... • Inside linebacker coach Brian Cabral went back to his roots to score a recruiting coup, as he signed Vili Maumau from Honolulu's St. Louis High School. That's where Cabral and another Buff alum, Gary Campbell, graduated from in the 1970s. Maumau is a native of the Tonga Islands, located by themselves in the South Pacific, and is likely one of just a handful of Tongans to ever come play football in the states. In English, Maumau's last name means "damage" or "destroy." ... • Offensive tackle Aaron Wade had one of the most intriguing routes to signing a letter-of-intent. He was held out of the ninth grade by his mother so he could work, which he did, working at a few odd jobs. Aaron then enrolled in high school in 10th grade, working as the team manager for the football squad. He went on to play two seasons (1990, 1991), but because he did not attend the ninth grade, he was behind on classes he needed to graduate (which he did in May). Last fall, he actually worked as a coach at Wheat Ridge, as he was paid an hourly wage working with the defensive linemen. One of his old teammates, and one of his pupils, Shane Magalei, is attending BYU ... • The 19 new players in the CU program are used to winning, even more so than the three previous recruiting classes here. When taking a look at the combined record of the teams they played for their senior seasons, it's an incredible 166-51-1, a 76.4 winning percentage. That's the best since 1984 (when this started to be tracked; the last three groups had winning percentages of 69.3 in 1989, 69.6 in 1990 and 74.5 in 1991). Of the 96 players on the CU preseason roster, 64 (or 67 percent) played for a league, city, district and/or state championship team at some point in their high school careers.

- How important is CU football to the Boulder economy? A recent study by the Boulder Chamber of Commerce cited that football fans pumped over $14.5 million into the state's economy during the 1992 football season. The figures worked to $2.43 million per home game, with almost $440,000 in local and $554,000 in state taxes raised through sales tax revenues. For every $1 the University spent to support athletics, it returned $3.60 to Colorado's economy from football alone.
- Since 1984, Colorado is tied for 22nd nationally for the most NFL draft picks in the top five rounds (15). However, in the last four drafts, the Buffs are sixth in the same category, as 12 CU players have been selected in the first five rounds since 1990. In the most recent draft (1993), the Buffs had two first round picks, trailing only Notre Dame (four) and Alabama (three). No other school had more than one in this year's first round.

- Speaking of draft picks, Colorado has had 15 first round draft picks in its history, including the two last April (Deon Figures and Leonard Renfro). Bo Matthews was the highest, as he was No. 2 overall in the 1974 draft by the San Diego Chargers. There have been a handful of CU athletes that have been drafted in more than one sport, most notably Carroll Hardy (football and baseball; he's the only player ever to pinch-hit for Ted Williams), Dave Logan and John Stearns (who was the No. 2 overall pick in the 1973 baseball draft by the Philadelphia Phillies).
- This fall, Dick Anderson will become the third Colorado player to be inducted into the College Football Hall-of-Fame. He will join Byron "Whizzer" White and Joe Romig when he is inducted the first week of December. Dick was an All-American defensive back at CU in the late 1960s and enjoyed a stellar career in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins. His son, Blake, is a junior wide receiver on this year's CU team.
- Bill McCartney's staffs have produced five Division I head coaches, including two of the three black head coaches at the 107 schools. Gerry DiNardo (1982-90 on the CU staff) became head coach at Vanderbilt in December, 1990; Gary Barnett (1984-91) was named head coach at Northwestern in December, 1991, the same month Lou Tepper (1983-87) was named at Illinois; Ron Dickerson (1982-84) was selected at Temple in November, 1992; and Jim Caldwell (1982-84) became head coach at Wake Forest in December, 1992.
- Colorado might be the only school in the country that has a player being coached by his older brother. Senior Sean Embree plays tight end, and his position coach, Jon Embree, was hired full-time last March. The elder Embree was an All-Big Eight performer at CU between 1983-86 and played for the Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks in the NFL.
- Colorado's press box was one of just three to earn a citation of merit from the Football Writers Association of America for 1992 (Miami, Fla., and the Southeastern Conference for its playoff game were the other two). Schools are eligible to win once every five years, as CU last won in 1987.
- The Stanford game is the only one this season that will be played on grass, and will be only the 14th game on the "real stuff" in McCartney's tenure at Colorado. Under McCartney, the Buffs are 4-8-1 on natural turf (1-5 in bowl games).
- The top postseason honors in 1992 went to CB Deon Figures, who won the Jim Thorpe Award as he was selected the nation's top defensive back. Figures claim to fame was that he had as many interceptions (six) as receptions allowed. OT Jim Hansen was one of 32 scholar-athletes nationwide to win the prestigious Rhodes Scholarship, which affords him the opportunity to attend Oxford University in England. Hansen also became a three-time GTE Academic All-American, and was selected the 1992 Academic All-American-of-the-Year. He was named a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete, and was their choice for the Scholar-Athlete-of-the-Year as well, which carried a $25,000 scholarship award. He will leave for Oxford this October.
- In 1992, Colorado started more freshmen and sophomores than any other team in the top 25, a CU Athletic Media Relations Office survey indicated. The Buffs started four freshmen (one true, three redshirt) and eight sophomores for a total of 12, two more than the runner-up, Tennessee. Here's a look at the survey, which was based on the final Associated Press regular season poll:

(* — Hawaii was ranked No. 24 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll. Colorado's count: Freshmen (4) — FL T.J. - Colorado's switch to a one-back, more pass-oriented offense was greeted with raised eyebrows at the very least, but the results in 1992 were impressive. The Buffs set a school and Big Eight Conference record passing yards in a season (3,271), with CU becoming only the fourth team in NCAA history to boast a pair of 1,000-yard receivers (Charles Johnson and Michael Westbrook). The offense's maiden voyage was in the Blockbuster Bowl, a 30-25 loss to Alabama after just 10 days of practice in the new set. The 25 points by Colorado, incidentally, is the most on the heralded Alabama defense in the Crimson Tide's current 23-game winning streak.

- When Bill McCartney took the job at Colorado in 1982, he accurately predicted that it would take 7-10 years to take the Buffaloes back to the top level of college football, and he did that with the school's first national championship in 1990. His CU teams won the most games ever (47) over a five-year span between 1988 and 1992.
- CU owned the fourth quarter in 1992, outscoring the opponent 111-48 in gaining 1,258 yards on offense (114.4 per game) while giving up only 583 yards on defense (53.0 per). The Buffs rallied to win in the fourth against Minnesota and Kansas, extended leads against Iowa and Missouri, held Baylor at bay and tied Oklahoma. The opponent ran 188 plays in the fourth quarter, averaging only 3.1 yards per play. The Buffs dominated Iowa (242-27 in total offense), Oklahoma (201-47), Kansas State (143-8) and Oklahoma State (53-minus 2) the most in the fourth quarter, while only Nebraska (147-34) and Iowa State (89-25) outgained the Buffs in the final 15 minutes.

- Colorado is 5-12 in bowl games, having lined up with 14 different opponents. A quick look at CU's bowl history:

Year	Bowl	Opponent	Result	Year	Bowl	Opponent	Result
1938	Cotton	Rice	L 14-28	1977	Orange	Ohio State	L 10-27
1957	Orange	Clemson	W 27-21	1985	Freedom	Washington	L 17-20

- Colorado has scored 38 times in 53 tries that the offense has been put into the two-minute drill since 1988 (or 72 percent of the time). The Buffs were 5-of-11 in 1992, scoring three field goals (including the game-tie against Oklahoma) and two touchdowns (the game winner against Kansas and in the first half against Syracuse). Colorado was 5-of-8 in the two-minute offense in 1991, 9-of-13 in 1990, 9-of-9 in 1989 and 10-of-12 in 1988. Vance Joseph led the comebacks against Oklahoma State and Kansas in '91, replacing an injured Darian Hagan in both games. Against Kansas, he brought the Buffs back from 14 down with 8:44 left in the third quarter for the win, which included an eight-play, 80-yard drive in the final two minutes. That ranked as the third biggest comeback in CU history until last year, when CU came back from a 17-0 deficit against Minnesota.

STATS-N-FACTS . . . • Opponents scored over a third of their points against the Buffs after turnovers (69 of 198, or 34.8 percent). Defenses scored five touchdowns on the Buff offense, helping to skew CU's scoring defense nationally. Colorado scored only 18.2 percent of its points (29 of 318) after opponent miscues. • For the sixth straight season, Colorado's starting field position was better than the opponent; in 1992, the Buffaloes started their 146 drives on their own 33 (on the average) compared to 163 opponent drives at their own 29 • Colorado is 39-3-2 in its last 44 games on artificial turf and has won 23 of its last 27 road games. • Colorado passed for more yards than it has rushed for in all 12 games in 1992; the Buffs had done that just three times over the previous seven seasons (1985-91). • Ron Woolfork owns the longest consecutive starting game streak (24) on the team.

Player Biographies

17 AYYUB ABDUL-RAHMAAN, QB

6-1, 190, Fr., HS, Oakland, Calif. (Skyline)

College—This Season: Projected as a quarterback in his first season of collegiate ball.

High School: Garnered SuperPrep All-Far West honors as a senior, when he was named Skyline's most valuable player (after he earned the same honor the previous season at Berkeley High School up the bay). He was a two-time all-Oakland Athletic League selection (once at each school) and earned all-Metro (San Francisco Bay) honors as a senior. As a senior, he completed 110 of 140 passes (an astounding 78.6 percent) for 1,876 yards and 21 touchdowns, throwing only four interceptions, and rushed for 460 yards on 15 attempts (mostly broken plays or scrambling out of the pocket). His top games included a 15-of-19 effort for 310 yards and two TDs against Bellarmine and a four-touchdown effort (three pass, one rush) against Castlemont. As a junior, he threw for over 1,000 yards and 11 TDs with only five interceptions, and as a sophomore, he rushed and passed for about 500 yards each, as he was hampered much of the season by assorted injuries. For his career, he passed for over 3,400 yards and 28 TD passes. Skyline won the Oakland League (at one juncture, his team was ranked No. 2 in the state and lost in the state title game). Berkeley was 6-4 his junior year and 3-7 when he was a sophomore under coach Earl Moore. Also lettered three times in his prep career in basketball, and averaged 15 points per game as a starting guard his senior year.

Academics: Interested in mechanical engineering or political science as his major at Colorado.

Personal: Born Jan. 20, 1975 in Berkeley, Calif. Hobbies include drawing. Father (Frank) played at Cal-Berkeley (defensive lineman) and is an Oakland attorney. Last name is pronounced eye-you abdul rog-g-mon.

31 DEREK AGNEW, SS

5-10, 195, Sr., 1L, Los Angeles, Calif. (Brentwood)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed third at strong safety, and will likely see action on special teams. 1992: Earned his first collegiate letter as he saw action in all 11 games and the Fiesta Bowl on special teams (he had three special team points on the year: two knockdown blocks and a wedge break). He did not see any action in the defensive backfield. He suffered a broken collarbone in spring practice, after he was moved from the secondary to fill in at tailback.

He carried the ball eight times (for a net one yard) and caught one pass prior to being injured. 1991: Did not play, as he decided against playing prior to spring drills. 1990: Did not see any action after joining the team as walk-on during the spring.

High School: Lettered four times in volleyball and three times in football. He was a two-time all-league selection at linebacker in football, and was twice selected all-league in volleyball. Brentwood was 11-1 his junior and senior seasons, twice winning its league championship.

Academics: Majoring in English at Colorado. A member of CU's "Academic Starters" team, as he has the highest grade point average of all the strong safeties.

Personal: Born Sept. 27, 1971 in New York City. Hobbies include skiing and surfing. Father (James) lettered in wrestling and swimming at Michigan.

68 GERALD ANCAR, OG

6-4, 265, Fr., RS, Gretna, La. (Archbishop Shaw)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed third at left offensive guard. 1992: Redshirted; did not see any game action but practiced all season on the offensive line.

High School: As a senior, he was a Who's Who All-American (Terranova listing), when he also earned first-team all-state, all-district, all-metro and all-West Bank honors. He was a two-year starter on the offensive line, playing both guard and tackle, and was a preseason all-metro choice prior to his junior season. Shaw won three district championships during his career, posting a 10-2 record his senior year (to go with 12-1 records his junior and sophomore seasons). His high school coach was Hank Tierney.

5 BLAKE ANDERSON, SE

6-1, 180, Jr., VR, Palos Verdes, Calif. (Palos Verdes)

Academics: Majoring in sociology at Colorado.

Personal: Born Nov. 11, 1974 in Port Sulphur, La. Hobbies include hunting and fishing.

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed third at split end. 1992: Saw action in four games, but did not catch any passes. He was hampered by injuries much of the season, as an ankle sprain forced him to miss four of the first six games. He missed the Fiesta Bowl due to a severely pulled hamstring. He moved over to receiver from defense (free safety), his third position in as many years, and he responded well. He had six catches for 66 yards in the Alumni game. 1991: Saw action in the first five games of the season, two on defense and all five on special teams. He was in on 16 plays from scrimmage, posting two tackles (one solo). He moved back to free safety in fall drills after playing quarterback during the spring to shore up the depth at the position. 1990: Redshirted, as he practiced the entire season at free safety.

High School: An all-CIF all-purpose back selection his senior year, and was all-area by the L.A. Times and the Daily Breeze. Because of personnel problems, he played quarterback as a senior for Palos Verdes, helping his team to a 9-2 record and the co-championship of the Bay League. He passed for over 500 yards and rushed for 400 yards and accounted for 12 touchdowns. On defense, he had 76 tackles, six interceptions and four forced fumbles. His efforts on both sides of the ball earned him co-MVP in the Bay League for 1989. As a junior, he had six interceptions, when he was a first-team all-league selection at free-safety (Palos Verdes was 6-4 that year). High school coach was Bill Judy. Also lettered in soccer (a second-team all-leaguer) and baseball (catcher).

Academics: Enrolled in CU's School of Arts & Sciences, and has selected communication as his major.

Personal: Born Nov. 13, 1971 in Miami, Fla. Father (Dick) was an all-Big Eight defensive back at CU from 1965-67 (and went on to enjoy a 10-year career with the NFL Miami Dolphins), and his uncle, Bobby, was an All-American at CU from 1967-69 (he also played six seasons in the NFL with Denver and Washington). He is a good golfer and an avid fisherman. He has also excelled as an amateur boxer.

70 CRAIG ANDERSON, OG

6-4, 285, Sr., 2L, Alamo, Calif.

(Berean Christian/Diablo Valley College)

College—This Season: Did not participate in contact drills during the spring, as he continued rehabilitation following knee surgery last fall. He has a redshirt year available for use should he not be at full strength this fall. 1992: Started five of the first six games of the season (missing the Iowa game with the flu), but suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee in practice prior to the Oklahoma game. He had surgery and missed the remainder of the season. He moved over to guard from tackle during spring drills. 1991: He started 11 games (including the Blockbuster Bowl) at offensive tackle and played briefly in a 12th (Kansas State, when he was hobbled with a sprained ankle).

He was in for 686 snaps from scrimmage in his first season of Division I football. 1990: Earned all-conference honors playing right guard for coach Ed Hall at Diablo Valley College. He won the Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman honor for his team, which was quite a feat since it was the first time he had ever played offensive line. Diablo posted a 10-1 record and finished second in its league.

High School—Lettered in four sports in high school, including three times in football for coach Bob Erbland. He played both fullback and linebacker as a prep, as he posted 130 tackles, seven quarterback sacks and made two interceptions as a senior. He saw action on offense in primarily short yardage situations. His top game came his senior year, when he had 23 tackles and four sacks in Berean's 42-12 win over Anderson Valley. He was an all-league selection as a sophomore, junior and senior, and was his team's defensive MVP as a senior. He also lettered in track, as he set school records in both of his events (shot, discus). Those marks were produced in the league meet his senior year, when he threw the shot 56-0 and the discus 146-0. He earned two letters in baseball (pitcher) and one in basketball (forward).

Academics—Majoring in kinesiology at Colorado. He was a member of the honor roll (3.0 grade point average) in junior college.

Personal—Born Apr. 25, 1972 in Walnut Creek, Calif. He was selected as Berean's Outstanding Arts Student as a senior. One of his hobbies includes restoring 4x4 trucks, and goals after college include a desire to work with the FBI.

33 JAMES HILL, TB

6-0, 210, Sr., 3L, Colorado Springs, Colo. (Widefield)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed first at tailback, and he will be in the thick of things in the battle for playing time at the position. 1992: Played in all 12 games, including starts in the final three games of the season. In the season finale against Iowa State, he rushed for a career-high 91 yards on 20 carries. He then bettered that effort with an 11-carry, 109-yard effort against Syracuse in the Fiesta Bowl. He scored six touchdowns (five rushing, one receiving), the biggest being the game-winner against Kansas for the second straight year. He is now 40th on CU's all-time rushing list, as he has 857 career yards. He moved to tailback during spring practice, as his old position of fullback was eliminated in CU's new one-back offense. He practiced the entire spring as the number one back, rushing 73 times for 271 yards, scoring all four of his touchdowns during the Alumni game. 1991: Started 10 games, including the Blockbuster Bowl, and played in 11, as a sprained ankle kept him out of the Oklahoma game and limited his action against Stanford. He finished third on the team in rushing, gaining 362 yards on 81 carries, as he was thrown for a loss on only two occasions. He scored four touchdowns, including the game winner in the final minute against Kansas. He was the team's

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed second at right defensive tackle, but should contend for starting honors in August drills. 1992: Plans were for him to redshirt but injuries at the nose tackle position forced some rethinking, and he wound up playing in nine games (starting six). He played 213 snaps from scrimmage in recording 27 tackles (two for losses), with two third down stops, along with a forced and recovered fumble. He switched his jersey from 92 to 93 so he could wear the same number as his idol as a freshman, CU All-American Joel Steed. 1991: Earned his first letter as a true freshman, as he worked his way into second on the depth chart at left defensive tackle. He played in 10 games, including the Blockbuster Bowl, and saw action from scrimmage for 113 plays, posting six solo tackles, two quarterback hurries and a third down stop.

47 CHRIS HUDSON, CB
5-11, 190, Jr., 2L, Houston, Texas (Worthing)

College—This Season: A legitimate All-America and All-Big Eight candidate at cornerback, where he has moved back to after one season at free safety. He had a fine spring, and was named winner of the Fred Casotti Award, which is presented to the team's top junior-to-be. 1992: Started 10 games and the Fiesta Bowl at free safety, as he missed the Oklahoma State game with a hamstring pull. He earned first-team All-Big Eight honors (Coaches; he was an honorable mention selection by the Associated Press). He had four interceptions, two each against Minnesota and Oklahoma. He now has eight career interceptions, which has him tied for 12th all-time at CU. He had 34 tackles on the season, with 11 third down stops (fourth on the team), four pass deflections and a forced fumble. He also returned four punts (for 10 yards), as he is a likely candidate to handle the chore in the future. He was selected CU's defensive back champion-of-the-week three times. He moved to free safety from cornerback for spring drills. 1991: Played in all 12 games, and started two games (Wyoming as the nickel back and Baylor at right corner) in earning his first letter. He set a Colorado record for the most interceptions by a freshman (four), returning one for 40 yards and a touchdown at Stanford (he had 111 return yards in all). He became the first freshman to ever lead CU in interceptions and the first non-starter to do so since 1964. He played 486 snaps from scrimmage, the most by any non-starter on the team, posting 22 tackles (including a tackle for loss and a pair of third down stops) and deflecting three passes. He also proved to be explosive as a punt returner, averaging 16.6 yards on five returns with a long return of 33 against Missouri. 1990: Redshirted.

High School—As a senior, he was a SuperPrep All-Regional selection, named to the Dallas Morning News and Houston's Post's Top 100, and was a first-team all-state, all-area and all-district pick. He had seven interceptions his senior season to go with 74 tackles, but was a demolition expert returning kicks, as he had 686 yards on punt returns and 536 returning kickoffs, enabling him to be named the district's top return man two years in a row. Returned an opponent's two-point conversion try 100 yards for two points to complete his senior resume. All told, he had 18 career interceptions and amassed 2,214 career yards on punt and kickoff returns. Worthing was 5-4 in both his senior and junior years under coach Cogger Coverson. As a sophomore, he intercepted back-to-back passes in a game, which turned into 97- and 107-yard touchdown returns. SuperPrep called him one of the best quarterback to cornerback converts in the history of Texas high school ball, as he made the switch following the 10th grade. Also played basketball (point guard, averaging 11.5 points and 10.1 assists per game as a senior).

Academics—Majoring in business at CU. Owned a 3.4 grade point average in high school, and was a member of the National Honor Society. He also was the vice president of his senior class. Hobbies include basketball.

6-5, 285, Soph., VR, Boulder, Colo. (Boulder)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed second at left offensive guard. 1992: He was pressed into action for the final five regular season games, as injuries at the guard position forced the cancellation of his redshirt plans. He fell short of the required minimum 100 plays to letter.

High School—Garnered Prep Football Report, SuperPrep and Who's Who All-American honors his senior year, when he was also named to Blue Chip Report's second team. He also earned first-team all-state (Rocky Mountain News, Denver Post), with both publications

9 CHARLES JOHNSON, WR

6-1, 185, Sr., 2L, San Bernardino, Calif. (Cajon)

College—This Season: One of the top receivers in the nation (Athlon ranked him No. 5 in its preseason publication, with the NCAA Football Preview selecting him No. 7). He is a likely All-America candidate, a possible Heisman Trophy candidate and definite All-Big Eight performer (Athlon, The Sporting News and Lee Corso's College Football tabbed him in the preseason). He did not participate in spring practice, opting to letter in outdoor track. He enters his senior year as Colorado's third all-time leading receiver, with 1,365 career yards. 1992: Started all 11 games and the Fiesta Bowl at split end, as he had quite a record-setting season. He caught 57 passes for a CU record 1,149 yards (a 20.2 average) and five touchdowns. He was a second-team All-Big Eight Conference selection (AP, Coaches), and he teamed with Michael Westbrook to become just the fourth set of receivers on the same team to go over 1,000 yards receiving the same season. He also tied Westbrook for the most receptions in a game when he had 11 (for 182 yards) against Missouri. Five of CU's six longest plays of the season were passes caught by him, including a CU record 92-yarder from Koy Detmer against Oklahoma. His five touchdown passes were an average 57 yards in length, and he proved to be explosive on punt returns as well. He averaged 22.5 yards on four returns, with a long of 42. In the Fiesta Bowl, he caught three passes for 46 yards and a touchdown against Syracuse. 1991: Played in all 12 games, including three starts (Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas State), as he was basically co-first team with Rico Smith. He scored a touchdown the first time he touched the ball from scrimmage, as he ran 26 yards on a reverse against Kansas State. He also returned a kickoff for 23 yards against Oklahoma State, and caught a "pop-up" kickoff and returned it three yards against Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl. He won the Lee Willard Award for being selected (by the coaches) as CU's most outstanding freshman.

Track—Has lettered three times in indoor track and twice outdoors. As a junior (1992-93 athletic season), he participated in the 55-meter hurdles (7.56 best) and was a member of CU's national qualifying mile relay team (which posted a 3:09.67 time) indoors, and outdoors, he ran the 400 (47.20 best), the 400-hurdles (50.04, which was second at the Big Eight meet and qualified him for NCAA's) and relays (400 and mile). He set all of his career bests as a junior, with his career best in the indoor 400 accomplished his freshman year, at the 1991 Big Eight Championships (49.41). He placed fifth as a freshman in the 400 hurdles at the Big Eight outdoor meet.

High School—A SuperPrep All-American (ranked as the No. 15 athlete and the 26th overall player), and was a preseason All-American at defensive back by that same publication. He received nine of a possible 10 votes in making the Long Beach Press Telegram's Best-In-The-West team, and was named to the Tacoma News-Tribune's Western 100 (as a defensive back). Played in only two games his senior year, as he suffered a knee injury (lateral ligament separated from the bone), but was at 100 percent later that same year as he played guard (starter) on Cajon's basketball team in the winter. He caught eight passes for 200 yards and four touchdowns (and had another two called back) in his brief but busy senior season. As a junior, when he was all-league and his school's athlete-of-the-year, he caught 32 passes for 658 yards (20.6 per) and had 12 touchdowns. He scored a touchdown on defense as a sophomore, returning an interception 45 yards. Had 48 career catches for 899 yards and scored 17 touchdowns. His play really heated up down the stretch, as he had a career-high 20 tackles (14 solo) against Nebraska, 10 against

He saw action for 280 snaps from scrimmage, the third-most of the true freshmen on the team. He had 53 tackles and two third down stops to go with three interceptions (which would have been a freshman record, but fellow frosh Chris Hudson had four). It was also the most interceptions by a linebacker since 1986 (when Darin Schuback also had three). One of his interceptions came against Oklahoma, which led to CU's go-ahead touchdown. He also saw action on special teams (coverage units).

59 GREG JONES, OLB

6-5, 215, Soph., 1L, Littleton, Colo. (John F. Kennedy)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed second at right outside linebacker, but will likely contend for the starting spot in August drills. He had a tremendous spring, as he had 18 tackles and six quarterback sacks. 1992: Played in 10 games and the Fiesta Bowl (seven at his position), as he lettered his true freshman season. As a junior, when he garnered first-team all-state (TE), second-team all-state (OLB) and first-team all-league honors, he was in on 86 tackles with 15 sacks, seven recoveries, three forces and three blocked kicks. 1 VANCE JOSEPH, QB

5-10, 195, Jr., 1L, Marrero, La. (Archbishop Shaw)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed second at quarterback. He participated in spring drills at 100 percent, as he was fully recovered from a rotator cuff injury in his (right) throwing arm. 1992: Redshirted; did not see any action. He was in the hunt for the starting quarterback role, but endured two-a-day practices with a sore throwing arm. It was later revealed that he had a few slight tears in his rotator cuff, and the decision was made to redshirt him so he could heal properly. A severely sprained ankle forced him to miss almost all of the Black & White Intrasquad game and the entire Alumni game during the spring, but he had played well up to that point. He was 13-of-33 for 243 yards and two touchdowns. 1991: Saw action in eight games (no starts), but had extensive action against Stanford and Oklahoma State in key situations and played all but the first two series against Kansas. He led CU to scores in 13 of 21 drives he engineered, a phenomenal percentage of 61.9 (12 of the scores were TD's). He came in for the injured Darian Hagan against Stanford, leading the Buffs to a TD the only drive he piloted, and also replaced a gimpy Hagan against Oklahoma State, leading the Buffs down the field for the game-winning score in the final seconds. Against Kansas, after Hagan was hurt early in the game, he came on to complete 7-of-11 passes for 85 yards while rushing eight times for 58 yards. He directed an eight-play, 80-yard drive in the final two minutes to rally CU to a 30-24 win. He rushed 25 times for 139 yards on the season and was third on the team in first downs earned with 22. He practiced the entire spring with the number one unit, as he was promoted to first-team while Hagan was in a rehabilitation program to recover from knee surgery. Enjoyed a fine spring, as he developed into a solid backup quarterback with the ability to work with the starters under pressure. In scrimmage/game situations, he completed 25 of 37 passes for 315 yards and four touchdowns. He completed 68 percent of his passes and was intercepted only twice. 1990: Saw action in four games, as he was pressed into duty in the midseason due to injuries to CU's top two quarterbacks. He showed flashes of brilliance while he was in those four games, completing 5-of-7 passes for 80 yards (and a touchdown) while rushing for 55 yards.

High School—As a senior, he garnered USA Today honorable mention All-America honors, in addition to earning all-West Bank, all-district and all-metro honors as a junior and senior. He completed 60 percent of his passes (39 of 65) for 738 yards and seven touchdowns his senior season, when he rushed 59 times for 368 yards and nine scores. He accomplished the above despite missing five games with a knee injury (at first, it was thought the injury was serious, but it turned out minor and he played the last seven games in a brace). Shaw averaged 40-plus points per game after his return, and he went on to play basketball that winter without the brace. He rushed for 946 yards as a junior and passed for 1,067, matching his sophomore totals of 950 yards rushing and 1,103 passing. Shaw was 37-6 in the three years that Joseph called the signals, including a 12-1 mark last season (losing in the state semifinals). Shaw was 12-3 his junior year and 13-2 his sophomore season, winning the state's 4A title under Coach Hank Tierney. He lettered four times in basketball (averaging 10.9 points per game as a senior) and played two years of baseball.

Academics—Majoring in business at Colorado. A one-time member of CU's "Academic Starters" team, and owned a 2.7 grade point average in high school.

Personal—Born Sept. 20, 1972 in Marrero, La. Brother (Mickey) played quarterback at Nebraska. 96 MELVIN THOMAS, DL

6-4, 280, Fr., HS, New Orleans, La. (Lawless)

College—This Season: Projected as a defensive lineman in his first season of collegiate football.

High School—Garnered Who's Who All-America honors as a senior (Joe Terranova's listing), and was an all-district defensive tackle as both a junior and senior. He was also named his team's most valuable lineman for two straight years. As a senior, he had 67 tackles, with 12 quarterback sacks, 10 forced fumbles, two recoveries and a pass broken up. He was in on 63 tackles as a junior, with 10 sacks, five forced fumbles and two pass deflections. A three-year starter, he also played offensive tackle all three seasons. His biggest prep moment came his senior year, when he lined up at tight end on a conversion try and caught the only pass of his career for two points in a 32-14 win over John McDonald

High. Lawless was 2-8 his junior and senior seasons, but only 1-3 his sophomore year as a strike cut the season short. High school coach was Roland Lombard, whom he credits with his parents as the driving forces to all his successes. Also lettered four times in track (shot put, throws in excess of 50-0), and once in baseball (designated hitter).

Academics—Interested in electrical engineering as his major at Colorado, and is currently enrolled in CU's School of Arts & Sciences. A solid student with a 3.4 high school grade point average, he was named winner of the Lawless' Scholastic Award for having the highest GPA on the team as both a junior and senior. 6 DUKE TOBIN, QB

6-1, 200, Sr., 1L, Arlington Heights, Ill. (Hersey/Illinois)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed third at quarterback, and is the team's holder on placement kicks. He completed 13-of-24 passes for 226 yards in spring scrimmages and games, and did not throw an interception. 1992: He saw action from scrimmage in five games and played in all 11 and the Fiesta Bowl (as the holder on placements). He did a nice job of filling in for the injured Kordell Stewart against Baylor; he played the entire second half, completing 10 of 15 passes for 154 yards and a touchdown. He started the next week against Minnesota, struggling with the rest of the offense as the Buffs were mired in terrible field position the entire first half. On the year, he threw a pair of touchdown passes (to Donnell Leomiti against Baylor and to Rae Carruth against Kansas State). Enjoyed a fine spring, as he often played without the benefit of the first-team offense around him. He was 7-of-20 for 91 yards and had three interceptions in the Black & White Game, and was 14-of-35 for 137 yards (with four picked off) in the Alumni Game. All told for the spring, he was 26-of-65 for 315 yards in the four major scrimmages/games. 1991: Redshirted, after transferring from the University of Illinois. 1990: Saw limited action at Illinois, completing 1-of-2 passes for six yards and rushing once for 17 yards. 1989: Did not see any action, but was a member of Illinois' Big Ten champion team.

75 AARON WADE, OT

6-7, 300, Fr., HS, Wheat Ridge, Colo. (Wheat Ridge)

College—This Season: Projected as an offensive tackle in his first season of collegiate football.

High School—His is a most interesting story: he was held out of the ninth grade by his mother so he could work, which he did, working at a few odd jobs. He then enrolled in high school in 10th grade, working as the team manager for the football squad. He went on to play two seasons (1990, 1991), but because he did not attend the ninth grade, was behind on classes he needed to graduate. He remained in school in 1992-93 to meet all the core collegiate requirements as well as taking a few courses for college credit. As a senior (in 1991), he was an all-state selection by the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News, when he was a SuperPrep Preseason All-American. He was a first-team all-Jefferson County League selection that year after earning second-team honors as a junior, his first real year of organized football. In his two years at Wheat Ridge, he did not allow a single quarterback sack and was never called for holding, playing offensive tackle. He was also all-state on the defensive side of the ball, making 120 tackles with six sacks and a fumble recovery as a senior. Wheat Ridge was 9-2 his senior season and 8-1 his junior year under coach Ed Stevens. He also lettered once in track (shot put, discus).

Academics—Interested in business as a possible major at Colorado but is really undecided.

Personal—Born Oct. 23, 1972 in Denver, Colo. Hobbies include camping, fishing and all sports. The first commitment of the 1993 CU recruiting class (Nov. 21). In 1992, he actually worked as an assistant coach at Wheat Ridge (defensive line) with his old teammates, and one of his pupils, Shane Magalei, is attending BYU on scholarship.

12 LAMONT WARREN, TB

6-1, 195, Jr., 2L, Inglewood, Calif. (Dorsey)

College—This Season: Enters the fall listed second at tailback, but he will contend for starting honors. He missed spring practice, as he opted to participate in outdoor track. He posted the second fastest 40-yard dash time (4.33) in preseason strength and conditioning tests. 1992: He played in all 11 games and the Fiesta Bowl (starts in the first nine of the season), and was troubled by a couple of injuries much of the second half of the season. He still was the team's leading ground gainer, as he rushed for 512 yards, and he tied for the team lead in touchdowns scored (8). His best game was against Iowa, when he carried 13 times for 114 yards (including CU's longest run of the season, 56 yards), and for his effort he was CU's offensive champion-of-the-week. He also scored three times against Baylor and twice against Oklahoma State. He was sixth on the team in receiving (the top non-receiver) with 12 catches for 131 yards. After just two seasons, he is 23rd on the all-time rushing list (1,342 yards) and is tied for 29th on the scoring charts (90 points). Against Syracuse in the Fiesta Bowl, he had 11 rushes for 25 yards and a touchdown. He saw limited action during the spring, as he underwent surgery to mend a left shoulder separation following the Blockbuster Bowl. In that game, he hurt his shoulder for the third time in less than three months. He was able to participate in non-contact drills in the spring. 1991: He earned second-team All-Big Eight honors (Associated Press), starting the last six games of the regular season and the Blockbuster Bowl, and played in 10 games overall. He set a CU record for the most rushing yards gained by a freshman with 830 (which was the seventh highest total by a frosh in Big Eight history). His average of 92.2 yards per game was fifth in the league and 29th nationally, which ranked him as the first and third freshman, respectively. He rushed for over 100 yards on three occasions, including 168 against Iowa State, the second most ever by a CU freshman. His other top games came against Kansas State (118 yards), Missouri (110), Stanford (95) and Kansas (94). He scored seven touchdowns, the second highest number ever by a frosh, and threw for another when he hooked up with Charles Johnson for a 48-yard play against Kansas. That was CU's longest touchdown pass play of the season, and he also had CU's longest rush, a 74-yard effort for a touchdown against Iowa State. He also caught 11 passes for 117 yards and was CU's offensive back champion-of-the-week three times.

Track—Lettered in both indoor and outdoor track during the 1992-93 athletic season. Indoors, he owned a team best of 47.37 in the 400-meter dash, and was a member of CU's NCAA Championship qualifying mile relay team (3:09.67). In the outdoor season, he again owned the team best in the 400 (46.44) and was a member of the 4x100 and 4x400 relay teams.

High School—As a senior, he was named All-American by Prep Football Report, SuperPrep, Who's Who and USA Today (honorable mention). He received nine out of a possible 10 votes in being named to the Long Beach Press-Telegram's Best-In-The-West squad. He won a host of honors in California, including first-team all-state, all-Central City (L.A. Times), all-city and all-Pacific League. On the top 100 lists of the Dallas Morning News and the Houston Chronicle (#40; he was the No. 9 running back). Ranked by Max Emfinger as the nation's No. 8 speed back prospect. As a senior, he rushed for 593 yards and eight touchdowns, caught 10 passes for 95 yards, and completed 62 percent of his passes for 371 yards and five TD's. He missed four games with a twisted ankle, and when he returned, he was asked to play quarterback to help the team, thus the diversified stats. As a junior, when he was first-team all-state, all-Central City, all-city and all-league, he rushed for 1,300 yards and scored 21 touchdowns (he also had 26 receptions for 450 yards and another four scores). He was named the city's Player-of-the-Year following his junior accomplishments. Top game was a 175-yard, three touchdown effort against San Diego's Point Loma as a junior. Defensively, he played some safety during his career. As a sophomore, he was the Junior Varsity Player-of-the-Year in Los Angeles, as he rushed for 1,800 yards and 30 touchdowns. Also participated in track, as he was second in the state meet as a junior in the 400-meter dash (47.5). 6-6, 260, Fr., HS, Walnut Creek, Calif. (De La Salle)

College—This Season: Projected as an offensive tackle in his first season of collegiate football.

High School—He did not play his senior year (1992), as an eligibility problem basically had him attend the 9th grade twice (he transferred from a school in Oakland to De La Salle, in Concord, a private Catholic school, where he had to re-enter the ninth grade. But his athletic "clock" had started as he played each season from 1988 through 1991). He did practice with his team to keep in shape. Regardless, he was still a Who's Who All-American, and SuperPrep placed him on its All-Farwest Region team. As a junior, he was a first-team all-league, all-city and an all-state underclassmen performer. De La Salle was 12-1 his junior year and 13-0 his sophomore season, claiming the North Coast Section Championship under coach Bob Lada-couer. He regularly speaks at local schools on a variety of topics, helped organize a golf tournament for the disabled, is involved in local DARE programs and coaches little league football. 1992: Started all 11 games and the Fiesta Bowl at left offensive tackle, and handled the centering on placement kicks. He played over 700 snaps from scrimmage, and was a very steady performer most of the season. 1991: Played in six games overall, including one start (Kansas State) for a gimpy Craig Anderson at left offensive tackle. He teamed with Charles Johnson to become just the fourth set of receivers on the same team to each eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. He set a single-game record with 11 receptions (for 186) yards at Baylor, but Johnson tied the mark three games later against Missouri. He spent the entire season in the top 10 in both receptions and yards per game, finishing fifth and 10th, respectively, in the NCAA. He had at least one sack in nine of 12 games for the season. Against Syracuse in the Fiesta Bowl, he was in on six tackles, which included two quarterback sacks. He had an excellent spring, as he was the recipient of the Fred Casotti Award, given to the top "junior-to-be."

1991: Earned second-team All-Big Eight honors (Coaches; honorable mention Associated Press), as he started all 11 games at outside linebacker (field, or wide, side). He led the team in quarterback sacks with 13 for 102 yards in losses, the second highest season totals for both in CU history. He was second in the Big Eight in sacks and third in tackles for losses (18), which topped CU. He was fourth on the squad in tackles with 78, second in hurries (11) and fourth in third down stops (7). He played the most snaps (727) of any player on defense, and also downed a couple of punts inside the five on special teams duty. He had an excellent game against Alabama in the Blockbuster Bowl, as he was in on 12 tackles (10 solo), with two sacks and a blocked punt. 1990: Played in all 13 games, including the Orange Bowl, on special teams, and played in four contests at his position. Started spring practice at quarterback, but moved to tight end early in drills, only to switch to outside linebacker for the final week of workouts. 1989: Redshirted; practiced all season as a quarterback. In the off season, he joined the CU basketball team as a small forward and saw limited action. He played a total of six minutes in four games, going 0-1 from the field and the free throw line to go with one rebound and one foul.

High School—An all-state, all-metro, all-city and all-Public School League selection his senior year on both offense and defense (LB) at Ford. Garnered All-American honors by SuperPrep Magazine, as the third best in the "athlete" category. Was an honorable mention USA Today All-American, a Blue Chip Preseason Top 200 pick, and was rated the top player in Michigan by the Detroit News (#8 by the Detroit Free-Press). Also garnered honorable mention all-state, first-team all-city, all-metro and all-league as a junior. As a senior, he passed for 1,070 yards and 15 touchdowns, in addition to rushing for 462 yards and eight touchdowns. That followed up a junior year in which he threw for 1,258 yards (completing 63 of 112 passes) and 15 touchdowns while rushing for 750 and eight scores. All told, he amassed over 5,000 yards of total offense in his high school career, and set a school record with 3,300-plus passing yards. Ford was 9-1 in his senior season and 7-3 his junior year under coach Joe Hoskins, winning the city championship and reaching the state semifinals. Also played varsity as a sophomore, where in a game against Murray Wright, he played five positions, including his first at quarterback (he directed and scored the TD in the winning drive). Also played basketball (a four-year starter at forward, averaging 16 points and 14 rebounds per game as a senior). Also ran track (top times of 10.6 in the 100-meters and 1:53 in the half-mile).

Academics—Majoring in sociology at Colorado. A three-time member of CU's "Academic Starters" team. Owned a 2.75 grade point average in high school, and made the honor roll in 9th and 10th grade.

Personal—Born Dec. 21, 1970 in Detroit. A second cousin, Curtis Duncan, played collegiately at Northwestern and is currently with the NFL Houston Oilers.

1992-In-Review

COLORADO 37, COLORADO STATE 17

Game One, September 5, 1992 (Attendance—52,164)

BOULDER—Kordell Stewart, in making his first career start at quarterback, broke two long-standing school records and tied a third in leading No. 12 Colorado to a 37-17 victory over in-state rival Colorado State.

Stewart completed 21 of 36 passes for 409 yards, the latter a school record, as he broke Randy Essington's mark of 361 yards against Nebraska, set a decade earlier. He threw four touchdown passes, tying Darian Hagan's school record set against Oklahoma State in 1990. Add in his 21 rushing yards, and his 430 yards of total offense shattered the old mark of 353, set by Bobby Anderson against Oklahoma State in 1968.

The Buffs opened up an early 14-0 lead, as Stewart threw scoring strikes to Michael Westbrook (48 yards) and Charles Johnson (60 yards). CSU whittled the lead to 14-10 at halftime, but was never really a threat to the Buffs. Christian Fauria and Westbrook caught second half touchdown passes from Stewart and Pat Blottiaux added three field goals as the Buffs pulled away in the fourth quarter.

Colorado amassed 543 yards of total offense and made 22 first downs in the game, while CSU had 382 total yards, 117 of which came on a pair of runs by John Ivlow.

COLORADO 57, BAYLOR 38

Game Two, September 12, 1992 (Attendance—34,202)

WACO, Texas—Colorado passed for over 400 yards for the second straight game and Lamont Warren added three rushing touchdowns as the No. 12 Buffaloes defeated the Baylor Bears, 57-38.

Kordell Stewart completed 16-of-17 passes for 251 yards, with Duke Tobin connecting on 10-of-15 for 154, as the pair combined for 405 passing yards all told. It marked the first time in CU history the Buffs had passed for over 300 yards in consecutive games. Stewart completed his first nine passes to break the school record, as he hit his last three the week before against Colorado State for 12 in a row.

The Buffs, after spotting Baylor an early 3-0 lead, roared back with 33 unanswered points and led 33-10 at halftime. The Bears trimmed the lead to 36-24 late in the third quarter, but Tobin directed a 10-play, 69-yard drive capped by a four-yard run by Warren to extend the lead back to 43-24. Warren scored on a 14-yard run on the next series to put the game out of reach at 50-24.

Colorado outgained Baylor 535-345 on the afternoon and had 26 first downs to just 11 by the Bears.

COLORADO 21, MINNESOTA 20

Game Three, September 19, 1992 (Attendance—33,719)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Koy Detmer, a true freshman, entered the game in the second half and completed 11 of 18 passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the game winner early in the fourth quarter, as No. 11 Colorado rallied to beat Minnesota, 21-20.

The Buffaloes came back from a 17-0 deficit, the third-best comeback in school history to win their third straight game on the young season. Both defenses dominated in the first half, as the only points came when Derek Fisher recovered a blocked Mitch Berger punt in the end zone to put the Gophers up 7-0. Minnesota had only 134 yards at intermission, and the Buffs, mired in poor field position the entire half, but four.

All that changed in the third quarter, as the teams combined for 300 yards of offense. The Gophers extended their lead to 17-0 before Detmer got rolling. He engineering a four-play, 61-yard and 61-second drive, capped by a 49-yard TD pass to Michael Westbrook to get the Buffs on the board. Just 13 seconds later, Dwayne Davis intercepted a Marquel Fleetwood pass and raced 31 yards into the end zone and the Buffs had closed to within 17-14. Minnesota's Aaron Piepkorn added a 36-yard field goal later in the period to extend the score to 20-14.

Detmer hooked up with Charles Johnson on a 24-yard scoring toss with 12:02 left in the game, and Pat Blottiaux's PAT kick proved to be the winning margin. Piepkorn had a chance to put the Gophers ahead in the final seconds, but his 55-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right and a bit short as the Colorado camp breathed a sigh of relief.

COLORADO 28, IOWA 12

Game Four, September 26, 1992 (Attendance—52,355)

BOULDER—Koy Detmer came off the bench for the second straight week, throwing three touchdown passes and helping No. 10 Colorado to a 28-12 win over the Iowa Hawkeyes. With the win, the Buffs improved to 4-0 out of the blocks for the first time since 1989.

A quick look at the statistics would have one thinking Iowa emerged the victor, as the Hawkeyes had more first downs (20-17), more time of possession (36:57 to 23:03) and no turnovers to Colorado's six. However, the Buffs defense dominated, limiting Iowa to just 2.9 yards per play while the CU offense gained 454 yards on just 58 plays, a 7.8 yard average.

After spotting Iowa a 3-0 lead, Lamont Warren's one-yard drive put the Buffs ahead 7-3 six minutes into the second quarter. A second Iowa field goal narrowed the lead to 7-6 at halftime. Playing at maybe 85 percent, Colorado quarterback Kordell Stewart just wasn't his normal self, as he was hampered in the first half by the effects of a mid-foot sprain, completing just 6-of-14 passes for 82 yards and netting zero yards on seven runs.

Thus, the change to Detmer for the second half. The true freshman threw touchdown passes to Christian Fauria, Michael Westbrook and Charles Johnson, the latter a 74-yard bomb to put the game out of reach with under four minutes to go.

Detmer completed 7-of-11 passes for 155 yards, with Warren gaining 114 yards on just 13 carries to lead the balanced CU offense. Westbrook and Johnson had touchdown receptions for the fourth consecutive game, which tied a school record.

COLORADO 6, MISSOURI 0

Game Five, October 8, 1992 (Attendance—37,183)

COLUMBIA, Mo.—Pat Blottiaux kicked field goals from 52 and 32 yards out as the No. 9 Colorado Buffaloes overcame the rain, wind and the cold to beat the Missouri Tigers, 6-0. The win marked the 23rd straight Big Eight Conference game without a loss for CU, which also won for 12th consecutive time on the road in league play.

The Buffaloes dominated the game in nearly every facet, most notably outgaining the Tigers, 458-187. The Buffs ran more plays (82-63), had more first downs (19-11) and had more time of possession (32:34-27:26). But turnovers and penalties combined with the unusually poor weather conditions for early October to help keep the Buffs out of the end zone. The Buffs scored only twice despite driving into Missouri territory 11 times.

Blottiaux drilled the longest field goal of his career, 52 yards, with just 1:02 left in the first half with a swirling wind at his back. He missed his first two attempts earlier in the half from 48 yards and 32 yards, the latter grazing the right upright. He came back later to nail a 32-yarder to give the Buffs a little more breathing room early in the fourth quarter.

Kordell Stewart played the entire game at quarterback, completing 24 of 45 passes for 335 yards (and two interceptions). His favorite targets were once again Charles Johnson (a record-tying 11 receptions for 168 yards) and Michael Westbrook (8 for 128).

The Buff defense held the Tigers to just 3.0 yards per play, as 33 of Missouri's 63 yards went for zero or minus yardage. Deon Figures had a pair of interceptions, the third two-pick game of his career.

COLORADO 24, OKLAHOMA 24

Game Six, October 17, 1992 (Attendance—52,454)

BOULDER—Mitch Berger kicked a 53-yard field goal as time ran out to rally No. 7 Colorado to a 24-24 tie with the Oklahoma Sooners. Berger's kick completed a 10-point run in the final four minutes, which saw the Buffs come back from a 24-14 deficit with only 4:27 left in the game.

The Buffaloes dominated the game in most statistical categories, including total offense (445-307), plays (79-56) and first downs (23-14), but for a second straight week turnovers played a key role in keeping CU out of the end zone. The Buffaloes tied a school record with seven turnovers, which included five interceptions by Koy Detmer, making the first start of his collegiate career.

Detmer also fumbled twice, but everything else he did paved his way into the CU record books. He set standards for completions (33) and yards (418), along with a record 92-yard touchdown pass to Charles Johnson.

Oklahoma scored 14 of its 24 points on returns (fumble and interception runbacks), and gained 42 percent of its offense (129 of 307 yards) on just two plays as the Buffalo defense turned in a basically stellar performance for the third straight game.

Lamont Warren's three-yard touchdown run sliced the OU lead to 24-21 with 3:14 remaining, and after a defensive stand, CU got the ball back with just 24 seconds left. Detmer hit Christian Fauria with a three-yard pass and then T.J. Cunningham with a 23-yard throw, with Cunningham getting out of bounds with two ticks left on the clock to set up Berger's game-winning kick.

COLORADO 54, KANSAS STATE 7

Game Seven, October 24, 1992 (Attendance—52,235)

BOULDER—The Colorado defense recorded its best statistical day in history as the No. 9 Buffaloes rolled to a 54-7 win over Kansas State. The Buffs limited Kansas State to just 47 offensive plays for 16 yards, a school and Big Eight Conference record.

The Buffs set the tone right from the start, shutting down K-State on the opening series as three plays netted zero yardage. Colorado then marched 74 yards in eight plays on its first possession, with Kordell Stewart passing two yards to Christian Fauria to put the Buffs up, 7-0. Mitch Berger added a pair of field goals to extend the lead to 13-0 after one quarter. Rashaan Salaam scored his first career touchdown, followed by an incredible nine-yard run by Stewart to make it 27-0. Flushed out of the pocket, Stewart broke at least six tackles before he lunged into the end zone.

Berger added three-pointers before and after intermission to put CU ahead, 33-0. Kansas State's only score came on a 52-yard interception return by C.J. Masters midway in the third quarter. A pair of touchdown runs by James Hill and a 20-yard TD pass from Duke Tobin to Rae Carruth in the fourth stanza closed the day's scoring.

The Buffs ran a school record 105 plays, gaining 514 yards in owning a 30-3 edge in first downs in the game. Deon Figures set CU records for punt returns (10) and punt return yards (167) for a single game.

NEBRASKA 52, COLORADO 7

Game Eight, October 31, 1992 (Attendance—76,287)

LINCOLN, Neb.—Colorado's 25-game unbeaten streak in Big Eight Conference play came to an end as the Nebraska Cornhuskers took advantage of six CU turnovers in defeating the Buffaloes, 52-7.

Nebraska turned an interception on CU's first play from scrimmage into a touchdown just over a minute into the game. The Huskers worked to a 17-0 advantage midway through the second quarter, when James Hill's three-yard run capped a 12-play, 81-yard drive to slice the lead to 17-7.

The turning point of the game came with just under two minutes left in the first half. Colorado got the ball back with 1:49 remaining at its own 44, but Koy Detmer was sacked and fumbled the ball, with Travis Hill recovering the fumble and returning it to the Colorado 27. On the last play of the half, Calvin Jones ran it in from a yard out, giving Nebraska a 24-7 cushion at intermission.

The Buffs were never able to get untracked in the second half. Nebraska outgained the Buffs on the day, 428-144, including a 248-32 edge after intermission. Nebraska held on to the ball for 42:50, the second most ever by an opponent against CU.

The loss also ended a 12-game road winning streak in conference play by the Buffs, which dated back to CU's last league loss, 7-0 at Nebraska in 1988.

COLORADO 28, OKLAHOMA STATE 0

Game Nine, November 7, 1992 (Attendance—51,559)

BOULDER—Lamont Warren rushed for 84 yards and two touchdowns and the Colorado defense stifled Oklahoma State all afternoon as the Buffaloes shut out the Cowboys, 28-0.

Colorado tied a school record by forcing eight turnovers and committed a season-low one itself in the methodical victory, which saw the Buffs score a touchdown in each quarter. Warren scored from two yards out on Colorado's first possession of the game and added a 15-yarder with a couple of neat spin moves to get into the end zone with 5:26 left in the first half to provide CU with a 14-0 intermission lead.

Kordell Stewart hit Michael Westbrook with a nine-yard scoring toss after Leonard Renfro recovered a Rafael Denson fumble deep in OSU territory late in the third quarter. Koy Detmer came off the bench and hooked up with Norm Barnett for CU's final score, with the four-yard pass play being Barnett's first touchdown of his college career.

The Buffalo defense limited Oklahoma State to just 118 yards, including only 44 on 35 rushing attempts. CU also had five interceptions, with a pair each from Deon Figures (the fourth two-pick game of his career) and Greg Lindsey (who started at free safety for the injured Chris Hudson).

Colorado had 350 yards of total offense (200 passing), with a decided edge in return yards (133-11) and time of possession (35:29 to 24:31). Oklahoma State's deepest penetration was the Colorado 38.

COLORADO 25, KANSAS 18

Game Ten, November 14, 1992 (Attendance—43,000)

LAWRENCE, Kan.—James Hill rushed for two touchdowns, including an eight-yard run with 2:09 left in the game, as No. 13 Colorado rallied to defeat No. 20 Kansas, 25-18.

The Buffaloes dominated the first half, leading 17-7 at intermission and owning a 202-113 edge in total yards. Leonard Rentro intercepted KU's Chip Hilleary and lumbered 18 yards for the game's first score, with Hill scoring from a yard out late in the first quarter for a 14-0 CU lead. Hilleary scored on a one-yard run to slice the lead to 14-7, but Mitch Berger worked it back to double figures with a 37-yard field goal.

Kansas reversed the tide in the third quarter, scoring 11 points on a 35-yard Dan Eichloff field goal and a 66-yard touchdown pass from Hilleary to tight end Dwayne Chandler. The Jayhawks held a 123-66 edge in offense in the quarter in taking an 18-17 lead into the final period.

Defense took over until late in the game, when the Buffs took over on the Kansas 42 after a poor Eichloff punt and a penalty for a late hit on CU punt returner Charles Johnson. Hill rushed five times for 24 yards on the winning drive, with Johnson hauling in a key third down reception from Kordell Stewart for 24 yards.

Colorado had 336 yards of total offense (318 passing), and owned a commanding edge in time of possession (35:54 to 24:06). While the stats showed CU netting only 18 rushing yards, CU lost 74 yards to sacks and another nine in "kneel downs" at the gun.

COLORADO 31, IOWA STATE 10

Game Eleven, November 21, 1992 (Attendance—49,133)

BOULDER—Kordell Stewart passed for 279 yards and three touchdowns, as Colorado raced to an early 28-3 lead and cruised to a 31-10 win over Iowa State in the regular season finale for both teams.

Chad Brown recovered a fumble on the Cyclone 19-yard line after Iowa State's first play from scrimmage, with Stewart then firing a 19-yard strike to James Hill for the game's first score. The Cyclones cut the lead to 7-3 on a Ty Stewart 25-yard field goal on their next possession, but the CU assault would soon begin.

The Buffaloes scored three touchdowns in a nine-minute span in the second quarter, as Stewart connected with Michael Westbrook and Christian Fauria on scoring tosses and Lamont Warren added a three-yard run. Colorado outgained ISU in the quarter, 150-20, in working to the 28-3 halftime lead. Iowa State never threatened the rest of the game.

Hill rushed for a career high 91 yards, with Westbrook joining teammate Charles Johnson with over 1,000 receiving yards on the year. Mitch Berger booted the longest punt at CU since 1988, when he pined a 74-yarder at the Iowa State five late in the game. As a team, CU's four sacks enabled the Buffs to tie the school's season record of 41.

Despite snowfall through the night, it ended an hour before the game and 14 inches of snow was cleared from the stadium floor just prior to kickoff.

Folsom Field

Folsom Field, named after the legendary CU Coach Frederick Folsom, opened for the 1924 season and has been the home of Buffs ever since. This will be the 70th season the Buffs will play their home games on the "hilltop."

It was dedicated on Oct. 11, 1924, as CU defeated Regis College, 39-0. It actually was the second home game of the season, as CU closed out playing at Gamble Field the week before with a 29-0 win over Western State.

It originally was called Colorado Stadium, the name being changed to Folsom Field in 1944 following Folsom's death. In addition, old 24th Street was also changed to Folsom Street, honoring the man who coached Colorado teams three different times totaling 15 years between 1895 and 1915. His 77-23-2 record, a 76.5 winning percentage, is still tops among all coaches ever at CU.

CU had played its games at Gamble Field for two decades, where seating was limited to temporary bleachers. The original Colorado Stadium had a seating capacity of 30,000, tripling that of the old Gamble Field.

With the addition of an upper deck in 1956, Folsom Field's capacity was upped to 45,000. Some 6,000 more seats were added in 1967 when the running track was removed and the team dressing facilities were constructed at the north end of the field.

Improvements continued, as the gigantic six-level pressbox facility was added on the west side for the start of the 1968 season. It also serves as the home for CU's Flatirons Club, a group of donors who financially support the athletic program.

In the summer of 1976, Folsom Field had another face lift, as the wooden bleacher seats were removed and replaced with silver and gold aluminum bleachers, expanding the stadium to a capacity of 52,005.

The renovation of CU's team house in the summer of 1979 took away a few seats, changing the capacity to 51,463. The construction of the magnificent Dal Ward Center in 1991 added new bleacher seating in the north end zone and increased the capacity to the present level of 51,748.

Prior to the 1971 season, the playing surface at Folsom Field was natural grass. Monsanto of St. Louis, Mo., replaced the natural grass with AstroTurf for the 1971 campaign, with the first game being played on the artificial surface against the University of Wyoming on Sept. 18 (the Buffs won 56-13). The original AstroTurf surface was replaced with a "new rug" for the start of the 1978 season, and in the summer of 1989, "AstroTurf-8" was installed, the third artificial surfacing in the school's history.

Colorado vs. No. 1 Teams

The Buffs are 0-9 in their history when they have come up against the number one ranked team. Colorado has played only three teams with number one rankings — Nebraska (0-3); Oklahoma (0-5) and Southern Cal (0-1). In seven of these games, the Buffs have given the nation's best a solid run for their money. Here's a look at each CU-#1 matchup (both AP & UPI/Coaches unless otherwise noted):

Oct. 24, 1987 at Norman

NOTE: Colorado is 1-1 as the nation's No. 1 team, losing 21-6 to Notre Dame in the 1990 Orange Bowl and defeating Notre Dame 10-9 in the 1991 Orange Bowl.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That despite not having beaten a #1 team, Colorado has twice knocked Oklahoma out of the #1 slot? CU's efforts in 1957 and 1975 knocked the Sooners from #1 to #2 in the AP poll.

CU's 1990 National Championship

The 1990 edition of the University of Colorado football team accomplished two of the biggest "firsts" in its storied history. The Buffaloes played the nation's toughest schedule and posted an 11-1-1 record overall, with the win over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl cementing the school's first national championship. For the second straight year, CU logged a 7-0 record in league play, marking the first time that the Buffs had claimed the Big Eight Conference title in back-to-back years.

Colorado had flirted with the national championship just one season earlier, owning an 11-0 regular season record and entering the Orange Bowl ranked as the nation's No. 1 team. A 21-6 loss to Notre Dame, however, ended CU's dream season and the Buffs finished No. 4 in the national polls. Little did anyone know at the time that the Buffaloes would have the chance to redeem themselves.

Questions prior to the start of the 1990 season included, "What do you do for an encore?" and "Is Colorado for real or was last season a fluke?" Coach Bill McCartney didn't set winning the national championship as the team goal; winning back-to-back Big Eight titles was what he wanted his men to aim for. Shooting for all the marbles includes too many variables that are out of a team's control, while one holds its own destiny in pursuit of a league title. McCartney is not the kind to set a national title as a goal, anyway.

In the Associated Press preseason poll, the Buffs were ranked No. 5; its first opponent, Tennessee in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic, was ranked No. 8.

Colorado overcame three first-quarter turnovers against the Volunteers (that was almost one-fourth of the entire turnover total of the season before) to lead 24-10 early in the fourth quarter. The Buffs couldn't sustain the lead, and Tennessee caught CU with the game ending in a 31-31 tie.

In game two, Eric Bieniemy scored on fourth-and-goal from the one with 12 seconds remaining to give CU a 21-17 win over Stanford. This was alarming in that Stanford had the worst record in 1989 of the five non-league teams on CU's schedule, along with the fact that the Cardinals led 14-0 at halftime and had stifled the high-powered CU offense.

Illinois dealt CU what proved to be its only loss of the season on Sept. 15, as the 23-22 defeat to the Illini sent the Buffs reeling to No. 20 in the polls. A game that Colorado should have won (CU led, 17-3, in the second quarter) turned into a loss and gave CU a 1-1-1 start. Talk of 1989 being a fluke started to surface, that CU had won only because of emotion in response to the death of quarterback Sal Aunese.

The next two games put the Buffaloes back on track, and ended talk that Colorado was not for real. Colorado's 29-22 win at No. 22 Texas, with CU rallying from a 22-14 deficit early in the fourth quarter, was the game that McCartney and the team point to as the turning point of the season. A 20-14 win over No. 12 Washington a week later reinforced the national opinion of the Buffaloes, as CU took over the No. 12 spot in the polls after its defeat of the Huskies.

Colorado came through the fierce non-league portion of its schedule with a 3-1-1 record and prepared to defend its Big Eight crown earned the season before. The Buffs topped Missouri, 33-31, in their league opener amid controversy of the now famous "fifth down." CU's Charles Johnson scored the game-winning touchdown as time expired on what turned out to be fifth down. The play, created through an incredible mistake by the officiating crew, tainted the CU win and hurt the Buffs' image. Even though the Buffs defeated Iowa State, 28-12, the following week, Colorado had dropped back to No. 14 in the rankings though it sported a 5-1-1 record.

Still, the Buffaloes were off to a 2-0 start in league play, and improved to 3-0 with a 41-10 drubbing of Kansas at Lawrence in week three of the Big Eight season. The win pushed CU back into the top 10 (No. 10), with the Big Reds next up on the schedule.

Colorado knocked off Oklahoma, ranked No. 22 nationally, 32-23 to deal the one-time fourth-ranked Sooners their third straight defeat. The Buffs trailed, 14-6, late in the first half, with OU in position to kick a field goal. Greg Thomas skied to block the attempt, and quarterback Darian Hagan took over to lead the Buffs to a touchdown right before the halftime gun. Bieniemy broke free for a 69-yard TD run in the third quarter, and the Buffs pulled away in the final 15 minutes to dispose of the first of the Big Reds.

A week later, Colorado, now No. 9, traveled to Lincoln and defeated No. 3 Nebraska, 27-12, in rainy, cold and windy conditions. Bieniemy overcame five fumbles to score four touchdowns in the fourth quarter to rally the Buffaloes to the win. The end result was that Colorado had defeated both Oklahoma and Nebraska for the second straight year, and in back-to-back weeks, no less. The Buffs, with an 8-1-1 record, zoomed to No. 4 in the nation in the polls, and needed just one win in their last two games to get back to the Orange Bowl.

The Buffs steamrolled both Oklahoma State (41-22) and Kansas State (64-3) to finish the regular season at 10-1-1. The wins also marked the second straight year that CU took the Big Eight title with an undefeated 7-0 record in league play.

When Penn State knocked off Notre Dame hours after CU's win over K-State, the Buffs became the nation's new No. 1 team. Thus, as was the case in 1989, the Buffaloes entered the Orange Bowl to defend the nation's top ranking against Notre Dame, the team that lost to hand CU the No. 1 claim.

Colorado had the rare chance to play for the national championship a second straight year, and this time around, the Buffs made the most of their opportunity. Colorado overcame the loss of Hagan and Kanavis McGhee to injuries in the first half, taking the lead for good in the third quarter in defeating the Irish, 10-9. The win kicked off a wild celebration by some 20,000-plus CU fans in Miami and hundreds of thousands back home in Colorado.

McCartney's ninth Colorado team attained its goals of claiming the Big Eight title in back-to-back years, and surpassed it by winning the national championship. In the process, CU established itself among the elite in college football.

Retired Numbers

#24 BYRON "WHIZZER" WHITE

Colorado's first All-American and one of the greatest students in the history of the school, Byron (Whizzer) White, retired as a justice of the Supreme Court in March, 1993, after serving 31 years on the nation's high court.

White made all the All-America teams after a brilliant 1937 season in which he led CU to an 8-0 record and Cotton Bowl bid as he set national records with 1,121 rushing yards and 122 points. Those marks, erased nationally only after colleges went to 10- and 11-game schedules, set CU records. The scoring mark still stands.

White was a Phi Beta Kappa, Rhodes Scholar, two-time All-Pro halfback with Pittsburgh and Detroit, leading graduate of the Yale Law School in 1946, decorated naval intelligence officer in World War II, leading Denver attorney, and deputy attorney general for the United States. White is a member of the NFL Hall-of-Fame, the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall-of-Fame, and was selected to CU's "All-Century Team."

#67 JOE ROMIG

Romig, a two-time All-American selection, is a member of the Big Eight Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Now a senior research associate in radio physics in Boulder, Romig was the Buffs' 1961 team captain and the United Press International Lineman of the year. Romig had no peers as a linebacker, as he ranged far and fiercely from his middle linebacker position behind a four-man line. Fast and strong, he was consistently in on most of CU's tackles.

Offensively, Romig developed into an excellent straight-ahead and pulling blocker. Like White, he was an inspirational leader gifted with extraordinary physical and mental abilities.

Romig was a tremendous student, logging straight A's in his last six semesters and building a 3.9 grade-point average. He was also a Danforth and Woodrow Wilson Scholar. A Rhodes Scholar, Joe received his master's degree in physics at Oxford University in England and a doctorate in physics at Colorado in 1975. He is a member of the GTE Academic Hall-of-Fame and was selected to CU's "All-Century Team."

#11 BOBBY ANDERSON

Anderson set 18 single-game, single-season and career marks during his three-season career with the Buffs along with earning All-Big Eight and All-American honors.

A professional player with Denver (the team's No. 1 draft choice), Washington and New England, Anderson started his CU career as a quarterback but switched to tailback for the third game of his senior season (1969). In his career, he rushed for 2,729 yards and had over 5,000 yards in total offense.

Anderson concluded his Colorado career with a 254-yard rushing effort in the 1969 Liberty Bowl as the Buffs beat Alabama 47-33. He currently is a Denver-area businessman, and has worked several years for KOA-Radio handling pre- and post-game shows on the CU Football Network. He is a member of CU's "All-Century Team."

All-Century Team

The University of Colorado selected an "All-Century Football Team," as public balloting in 1989 tabbed 11 All-Americans among the top 25 selected to the 100-year squad.

Over 6,200 ballots were received in the public selection process, with over 150,000 votes cast from those ballots. Former CU players pared a list of 881 lettermen down to 118, which were in turn presented to the public for the final team selection.

Byron "Whizzer" White, the U.S. Supreme Court Justice who was CU's first All-American (1937), received 5,812 of a possible 6,265 votes. Bobby Anderson, who starred at both quarterback and tailback between 1967 and 1969, was the second leading vote-getter with 5,636, and two-way-star Joe Romig, who led CU to its first outright Big Eight Championship in 1961, was third with 5,145. White (#24), Anderson (#11) and Romig (#67) are the only Buffs to ever have their numbers retired.

One other player topped the 5,000 vote mark, as flashy Cliff Branch, whose name still frequently appears in the CU record book and who played a big part in the Buffs' No. 3 national ranking of 1971, captured 5,111 votes. The player with the fifth most votes, 3,989, was the only active Buff at the time to make the top 25, tailback Eric Bienenmy (a junior in 1989).

Joining White, Anderson and Romig as All-Americans on the century squad were Dick Anderson ('67), Pete Brock ('75), Mark Haynes ('79), Dave Logan ('75), Herb Orvis ('71) and Bob Stransky ('57).

Four players in the early years of CU football made the team, led by Walt Franklin, who played center and end between 1917 and 1921. Spring Football History

Spring football has been unique at Colorado for a couple of reasons. First, the Buffaloes used to play the oldest alumni game in the country, and second, Colorado actually plays two spring games.

Spring practice has for the most part ended with a game between the Colorado Varsity and Alumni. Back at the turn of the century, an Alumni team usually served as the season opener for the varsity (13 times all told, with the Varsity owning an 11-0-2 edge in those games). The Varsity held a 20-3 edge in the old format of the spring series, which started back in 1953 under then head coach Dal Ward. After a pair of games, the series became dormant until 1963 when it was revived by Eddie Crowder. There was no game between 1974 and 1976, and the 1978 game was cancelled due to a blizzard.

A new format for the Varsity-Alumni game (implemented in 1988) had the alumni playing in the first and third quarters, with the first team of the varsity playing the second and fourth quarters. They were pitted against the second- and third-team members of the varsity, resulting in a competitive and fun game. The alumni and first-team varsity always wore black. This format was discontinued following 1992 for competitive reasons.

The all-time results of the Varsity-Alumni game:

Year	Score	Attend.	Year	Score	Attend.
1953 — Varsity, 6-0	2,300		1981 — Varsity, 24-0	3,369

An intrasquad game was started by Bill McCartney in 1987 and was dubbed the "Black and White Game." The team is divided by the coaching staff into two units of equal strength. The tradition of the game is that the winners get steak and crab at training table; the losers get franks and beans. A look at this series:

One of the most emotional moments in CU football history came at halftime of the 1989 spring game, when the varsity and alumni saluted cancer-stricken quarterback Sal Aunese (center). Aunese passed away on Sept. 23 later than same year.

1938 COTTON BOWL

Rice 28, Colorado 14

Jan. 1, 1938 at Dallas, Texas

Colorado made its first bowl appearance ever, but the Buffs fell short to Rice 28-14, in the second annual Cotton Bowl. It was a one-man show for both teams, as All-Americans Byron "Whizzer" White (Colorado) and Ernie Lain (Rice) dominated for their respective squads. White was involved in both Colorado scores and Lain in all four Owl touchdowns.

Colorado led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter, when White threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Joe Antonio for the first TD, and then returned an interception 47 yards for a score minutes later. Rice battled back and scored 21 second-quarter points to take a 21-14 lead at the half. Lain threw two touchdowns and ran for another.

The Owls added another TD as the third period came to an even close when Joe Steene caught an eleven-yard pass from Lain. Lain and White were both named the outstanding players of the game.

1957 ORANGE BOWL

Colorado 27, Clemson 21

Jan. 1, 1957 at Miami, Florida

Big Seven runner-up Colorado stormed out of the chute and had ACC champ Clemson down 20-0 at the half as 72,552 fans yawned and went for refreshments at the 23rd Orange Bowl Classic.

But a lot of those drinks were spilled in the second half as Clemson rallied to take a 21-20 lead in the final period before the resurgent Buffs buckled up and drove for the winning score to take their first bowl triumph in history by 27-21.

Dal Ward's Buffs got first half touchdowns by John Bayuk, Howard Cook and Boyd Dowler to take the seemingly safe halftime lead. But Frank Howard's Tigers roared back to go ahead by 21-20 with 11:12 left in the game on a nine-yard run by fullback Bob Spooner.

But the Buffs sucked it up and drove 53 yards for the winning score after a Clemson onside kick attempt following the TD had failed. Eddie Dove carried four times and Bayuk three in the drive, with Bayuk getting the TD from the one-yard line with 7:13 left to play. Ellwin Indorf's kick gave CU its final winning margin. But it still took a pass interception at the Colorado 17-yard line by Bob Stransky to nail down the decision.

1962 ORANGE BOWL

Louisiana State 25, Colorado 7

Jan. 1, 1962 at Miami, Florida

Jittery Colorado was out-classed by LSU's smooth football hordes, and the Buffs lost a 25-7 decision in the 28th Orange Bowl Classic before 62,391 onlookers.

Coach Paul Dietzel's SEC Champions spotted Colorado an early 7-5 lead on Buff defender Loren Schweninger's 59-yard pass interception return for a score, then methodically dismantled the Big Seven Champions.

LSU took the lead for good in the second period, marching 82 yards for the score with Chuck Crawford going in from the one with 8:57 left in the first half to give the Tigers an 11-7 halftime margin.

The Tigers scored twice in the third period to put the game away quickly, going 43 yards after a poor Charlie McBride punt and blocking another McBride punt for a touchdown just as the third quarter ended.

Sonny Grandelius' Buffs managed only 143 yards in total offense against the LSU "Chinese Bandit" defense, while the Tigers got 343 yards. CU had come into the game with a 9-1 mark, losing to Utah and winning all seven Big Eight games.

1969 LIBERTY BOWL

Colorado 47, Alabama 33

Dec. 13, 1969 at Memphis, Tennessee

All-American tailback Bobby Anderson and his herd of Bison stamped into Memphis and outslugged Alabama, 47-33, before 50,042 fans and a nationwide television audience. It was the first post-season appearance by CU since the 1967 Bluebonnet Bowl and showcased Colorado's return to national prominence.

Anderson, a bullish 6-0, 208-pounder from Boulder, capped his All-America campaign by rushing for a Liberty Bowl record 254 yards and scoring three touchdowns. It gave him a total of 5,017 yards in total offense for his career and enabled him to become the first Big Eight player ever to hit the 5,000-yard mark for a career.

Fullback Ward Walsh scored twice on short runs, Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal, Anderson scored from the two, and Steve Engel and Bob Masten collaborated on a 91-yard kickoff return as CU stormed to a 31-19 half-time lead.

A total of 16 new Liberty bowl records were set in the long and exciting afternoon in Memphis Memorial Stadium before ABC-TV sports cameras.

Soph quarterback Bobby Anderson ignored a painful ankle problem and ignited Colorado's 31-21 Bluebonnet Bowl win over Miami of Florida in Rice Stadium.

The 19-year-old Boulder-bred signal caller led the Buffs on an 80-yard TD march in the third period to give the Herd a 17-14 lead. Then, after the Hurricanes had gone back into the lead again, Anderson sped 38 yards for a touchdown with 6:55 left in the game to put CU back ahead by 24-21. Anderson then took the Buffs 34 yards for another score with 1:02 to play after Isaac Howard had picked off a Miami pass at the Hurricane 34-yard line.

Anderson was the complete player in winning game MVP honors, running for 108 yards on 17 carries, scoring two touchdowns on runs of 38 and 2 yards, and passing for 49 yards on 5 of 10 attempts. Oddly, Anderson did not start the game, giving way to fleet Dan Kelley because of his bothersome ankle. Bobby entered the game in the second period with Miami ahead, 14-7.

1970 LIBERTY BOWL

Tulane 17, Colorado 3

Dec. 12, 1970 at Memphis, Tennessee

Hungry Tulane ruined Colorado's return to the Liberty Bowl and the Green Wave walked off with a stunning 17-3 upset of the Buffs as 44,640 fans shivered in the cold at Memphis Memorial Stadium.

Colorado, playing without injured quarterback Jimmy Bratten, and going with soph Paul Arendt, mounted little offense and fell to the emotional Tulane effort. CU had come into the game only 6-4, but had upset powers Penn State and Sugar Bowl-bound Air Force during the season.

CU got only a 33-yard field goal from Dave Haney and managed only 175 yards in total offense after leading the Big Eight with a per-game average of almost 425 yards.

Tulane's David Abercrombie returned a second half kickoff 66 yards and scored himself on runs of two and four yards to cap drives that broke a 3-3 halftime tie and sent Tulane to its win over the Buffaloes. Linebacker Rick Kingrea set up the second tally with a 44-yard interception return off Arendt in the final period.

1971 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Colorado 29, Houston 17

Dec. 31, 1971 at Houston, Texas

Colorado sophomore tailback Charlie Davis returned to his home town and ripped host Houston for a whopping 202 yards on 37 carries as the Buffs whipped the Cougars, 29-17, in the 13th Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Classic at the Astrodome.

Davis scored twice and was a one-man show in the first half. CU took a 23-14 lead into the dressing rooms thanks to a 27-yard run by Davis, a TD pass of five yards from Ken Johnson to Larry Brunson, a 32-yard field goal by J. B. Dean, and another TD run by Davis.

Houston, behind the running of Robert Newhouse, roared back to narrow the margin to 23-17 with 2:16 left in the third quarter as Mike Terrell kicked a 29-yard field goal. Newhouse, who lost out to Davis for the game's MVP Award, had 168 yards on 35 carries and also scored twice.

Safety John Stearns was a Colorado hero in the fourth period, running with his faked punt from his own 10 to his 22 for a crucial first down after Houston had turned the momentum around and narrowed the margin to just a touchdown on the Terrell field goal. Stearns then knocked down a sure TD pass on fourth down with the Cougs at the CU nine. The Buffs turned that one around and marched for the clinching tally with 3:48 left in the game.

1972 GATOR BOWL

Auburn 24, Colorado 3

Dec. 30, 1972 at Jacksonville, Florida

Auburn, an 11-point underdog to Colorado, took command in the second period and went on to beat the Buffs, 24-3, in the 28th Gator Bowl Classic before 71,114 fans.

It was 17-0 in favor of the Tigers before CU got on the board with just 7:31 left in the game on a Freddie Lima field goal. Auburn shut off the fearsome Colorado rushing attack with just 63 yards in 29 attempts and forced Buff quarterback Ken Johnson to the air.

Auburn, sixth-ranked in the nation, took it to Colorado by capitalizing on two CU fumbles and two pass thefts. Johnson, who had directed Colorado to an 8-3 season coming into the game, hit on 17 of 29 passes for 169 yards, but the Buff running game was shut down.

Garner Jett's 27-yard field goal and a fumble recovery at the Colorado 16-yard line a minute later led to the 10-0 halftime lead for Auburn. Then, in the second half, wingback Mike Fuller hit tight end Rob Spivey with a 22-yard TD pass and holder Dave Beck threw a 16-yard TD pass off a fake field goal to Dan Nugent to ice the win.

1975 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Texas 38, Colorado 21

Dec. 27, 1975 at Houston, Texas

Colorado rolled up a commanding 21-7 halftime lead over Texas, then kicked it away as the Longhorns rallied to a 38-21 win in the 17th Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in the Houston Astrodome before 52,748.

In the first half, Colorado rolled up a commanding 16-5 edge in first downs, an edge of 225-89 in total yards, and a 48-20 edge in plays to go ahead 21-7. CU fullback Terry Kunz scored on a one-yard dive with 2:29 left in the first period, quarterback David Williams threw a four-yard TD pass to Dave Logan with 12:42 left in the second period, then added a 25-yard scoring aerial to huge end Don Hasselbeck with 0:24 left to play to make the 21-7 margin.

But Kunz opened the second half with a costly fumble at the Buff 34 and Texas halfback Jimmy Walker scored eight plays later to make it 21-13. UT end Tim Campbell blocked a CU punt a minute later and roared 25 yards for the TD. A two-point conversion pass from quarterback Marty Akins to fullback Earl Campbell tied the game at 21-21 with 10:56 left in the third quarter.

Texas kicker Russell Exleben's record 55-yard field goal with 6:25 left in the third period gave the Longhorns a 24-21 lead. Fleet Johnny Jones scored from four yards out with 3:15 left in the third period giving the Horns a 31-21 lead that stood up.

1985 FREEDOM BOWL

Washington 20, Colorado 17

Dec. 30, 1985 at Anaheim, California

Washington staved off a pair of late Colorado rallies and held on to defeat the Buffaloes, 20-17, in the second annual Freedom Bowl before 30,961 in attendance at Anaheim Stadium.

It was close throughout. Washington took a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter on a 30-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. The Buffs came back to take what would be their only lead of the night early in the second quarter. Fullback Anthony Weatherspoon scored from a yard out and Larry Eckel added the point after to give CU a 7-3 lead. The Huskies' David Toy scored on a three-yard run and Jaeger added the point with only 30 seconds left in the first half to put Washington up 10-7 at intermission.

Eckel tied the score at 10-10 with a 33-yard field goal with 8:41 left in the third quarter, but Washington countered three minutes later with a one-yard scoring run by Tony Covington for a 17-10 lead. Jaeger added an 18-yard field goal three seconds into the fourth quarter to make it 20-10.

All-American punter Barry Helton threw out of punt formation to Jon Embree for a dazzling 31-yard touchdown pass and Eckel added the extra point with 11:05 to go to pull CU to within three. The Buffs would get no closer, but had the ball at inside the Husky 10 in the final five minutes. Halfback Mike Marquez fumbled the ball at the two ending the drive, although television replays indicated the ground may have caused the fumble.

The game capped CU's turnaround season, as the Buffs went from 1-10 the previous year to 7-5 and captured the NCAA's most-improved team honor.

Marquez led the Buffs with 80 yards on 10 carries, while Chris Chandler led the Huskies with 72 yards on seven tries. It was a defensive game, with each team committing just a single turnover, but Washington was penalized 13 times for 88 yards on the evening.

1977 ORANGE BOWL

Ohio State 27, Colorado 10

Jan. 1, 1977 at Miami, Florida

Colorado returned to the Orange Bowl as Big Eight co-champions for the first time since 1961, but Ohio State's defense and an injury to CU middle guard Charlie Johnson in the first half killed CU's chances in a 27-10 Buckeye win before 65,537.

Colorado opened with a bang, getting ahead 10-0 in the first period on a 26-yard field goal by Mark Zetterberg with 5:56 elapsed, then a touchdown pass of 11 yards from soph quarterback Jeff Knapple to wingback Emery Moorehead with 3:43 left.

But Johnson went down with a broken ankle, and Ohio State coach Woody Hayes substituted fleet Rod Gerald at quarterback for the often-sacked Tom Pacenta and the Buckeye offense came alive in the second period.

OSU tailback Jeff Logan rambled for a 36-yard touchdown up the middle as the period came to an end, then the Bucks tied it on a 28-yard field goal by Tom Skladany with 9:29 left in the half.

Ohio State put on a 99-yard drive capped by fullback Pete Johnson's three-yard run with 0:20 left in the half to take a 17-10 lead which stood up until Skladany added another 20-yard field goal with 2:30 left in the third quarter to make it 20-10 in favor of OSU.

The Buffs could not do anything offensively in the second half, and a pass interception at the Colorado 28 with 3:08 left led to the final Ohio State touchdown and the winning margin of 27-10.

1986 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Baylor 21, Colorado 9

Dec. 31, 1986 at Houston, Texas

Baylor turned two Colorado turnovers into touchdowns and then thwarted two Buff scoring threats in the fourth quarter as the Bears defeated CU, 21-9, before 40,470 in attendance at Rice Stadium in the 28th Bluebonnet Bowl.

Baylor drew first blood with 3:34 left in the first quarter on a one-yard plunge by Derrick McAdoo. Colorado countered two drives later with a 36-yard field goal by Dave DeLine to slice the lead to 7-3 early in the second stanza. But the Buffs turned the ball over on their own eight and it took Baylor three plays to score to extend the lead to 14-3, which stood at intermission.

CU turned the ball over on its second play from scrimmage in the second half and McAdoo scored again from a yard out to put Baylor up 21-3. The Buffs finally put six on the board late in the quarter on a 31-yard touchdown run by Mark Hatcher, but CU couldn't convert the two and score remained 21-9 in favor of the Bears.

The Buffs twice had the ball deep in Baylor territory in the fourth quarter, but the Bear defense held as CU couldn't convert either time on fourth down. In a game dominated by defense, Baylor outgained Colorado 279-194. Each team had 12 first downs, and the Buff defense held the Bears to over 200 yards under its per-game average for the season.

Brigham Young's only lead of the game came when it counted the most, as Jason Chaffetz' 35-yard field goal with 2:33 remaining in the fourth quarter rallied the Cougars to a 20-17 win over Colorado in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl.

The Buffs turned a BYU turnover into seven points just two-and-one-half minutes into the game, as Eric Bieniemy scored from one yard out to cap a six-play, 49-yard drive. Pat Blottiaux's PAT kick put CU up 7-0, but the Cougars tied the score some seven minutes later on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Sean Covey to Mike Salido.

Bieniemy's second touchdown of the game, also from a yard out, enabled CU to forge a 14-7 lead with 1:04 left in the half. The margin stood at halftime.

The Buffs blew several scoring opportunities, twice penetrating the BYU 20 and coming away empty. In the meantime, Ty Detmer's 14-yard scoring strike to Chuck Cutler knotted the score at 14 after three quarters. Blottiaux made good on a 19-yard field goal early in the fourth to give CU its last lead (17-14), but Chaffetz countered with a 31-yarder before nailing the game winner in the final minutes.

Colorado outgained the Cougars, 337-320, on the evening, but its on mistakes and penalties (nine, the most in CU bowl history), added up to the fifth straight bowl loss by the Buffaloes.

1990 ORANGE BOWL

Notre Dame 21, Colorado 6

Jan. 1, 1990 at Miami, Florida

Fullback Anthony Johnson's second touchdown run of the game late in the fourth quarter put an end to Colorado's undefeated season and national championship hopes as Notre Dame defeated the Buffaloes, 21-6.

Colorado came into the game with an 11-0 record and its first-ever No. 1 national ranking. The Buffs appeared headed to the national championship in the first half, as CU dominated the line of scrimmage in gaining 186 first-half yards, but couldn't convert on three golden scoring opportunities. Instead of leading 17- or 21-0 at halftime, the Buffs found themselves in a scoreless deadlock, and that thanks to Gary Howe's block of a Notre Dame field goal attempt at the intermission gun.

The Irish took control of the game in the third quarter, using a two-yard scoring run by Johnson and a 35-yard touchdown run on a reverse by Raghib Ismail to take a 14-0 lead midway through the period. Colorado sliced the lead to 14-6 on a spectacular 39-yard run by Darian Hagan to close the quarter, but the PAT kick sailed wide by Ken Culbertson, leaving the Buffs eight points back.

Johnson's second touchdown, a seven-yard effort, culminated a mammoth 17-play, 82-yard drive which ate up almost nine minutes of the clock. The Buffs got the ball back with 1:32 left in the game, and after Mike Pritchard returned the Irish kickoff 28 yards to the CU 41, could not get anything going prior to time running out.

1991 ORANGE BOWL

Colorado 10, Notre Dame 9

Jan. 1, 1991 at Miami, Florida

In an Orange Bowl where there was no shortage of heroes for Colorado, the Buffaloes toppled Notre Dame, 10-9, enabling the school to claim its first-ever national championship in football. CU overcame two key injuries in rallying in the second half for the victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Buffaloes drew first blood on a 22-yard field goal by Jim Harper three minutes into the second quarter. Notre Dame came right back, marching 62 yards in nine plays, with Ricky Watters scoring from two yards out. The score remained at 6-3, however, as CU's Ronnie Bradford charged through the line and blocked Craig Hentrich's extra point try. Just prior to halftime, CU lost the services of quarterback Darian Hagan (knee injury) and outside linebacker Kanavis McGhee (shoulder). Both missed the remainder of the game.

Hentrich booted a 24-yard field goal early in the second half to extend the Irish lead to 9-3. Charles S. Johnson took over at quarterback for the Buffs, with Notre Dame stopping CU cold on its first possession of the second half. On the first play of the next Notre Dame drive, Chad Brown forced Watters to fumble, with Paul Rose, subbing for McGhee, making the recovery.

Johnson, his feet now wet, coolly directed the Buffaloes to the go-ahead touchdown. Eric Bienenmy's one-yard touchdown run and Jim Harper's extra point kick late in the third quarter rallied CU into the lead. The Buffalo defense then held Notre Dame in check, as the Irish held on to the ball for only less than four minutes the rest of the game, mustering only 35 yards of total offense after CU went on top.

Colorado's road to the national championship wasn't without a late scare. Notre Dame's Raghib Ismail broke loose on a punt return with less than a minute remaining, appearing to run 91 yards for a score, but CU's Tim James was clipped on the play, nullifying the gain.

Bienenmy rushed for a game-high 86 yards on 28 carries, with Johnson earning the MVP honor, completing five of six passes for 80 yards. The win, which gave CU an 11-1-1 record for the season, also snapped a seven-game CU bowl losing streak.

1991 BLOCKBUSTER BOWL

Alabama 30, Colorado 25

Dec. 28, 1991 at Miami, Florida

Jay Barker threw three touchdown passes and David Palmer scored twice to lead No. 8 Alabama to a 30-25 victory over No. 13 Colorado in the second annual Blockbuster Bowl.

Palmer scored the game's first points on a 52-yard punt return six minutes into the first quarter. The Buffaloes tied the score at 7-7 late in the quarter on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, which was set up a Ron Woolfork blocked punt. Ted Johnson tackled Martin Houston in the endzone for a safety early in the second quarter, and then the teams traded field goals to enable CU to take a 12-10 lead at halftime.

Barker hooked up with Siran Stacy for a 13-yard touchdown play in the third quarter, only to see the Buffs come back 18 seconds later on a 62-yard scoring strike from Darian Hagan to Michael Westbrook. Barker added a 12-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Lee later in the quarter to give the Crimson Tide a 23-19 lead after three quarters. Barker and Palmer connected on a five-yard TD pass with 8:10 left in the game to put Alabama ahead 30-19, but the Buffs cut the lead to five on a 13-yard pass from Hagan to Charles Johnson with 3:30 left.

Colorado got the ball back with 1:49 left and drove to the 'Bama 33 yard line before being stopped on a fourth-and-one play with 40 seconds left. Alabama outgained CU, 307-199, running more plays (81-60) and holding on to the ball for 38:10. The game marked the debut of CU's new one-back, pass-oriented offense.

1993 FIESTA BOWL

Syracuse 26, Colorado 22

Jan. 1, 1993 at Phoenix, Arizona

Kirby Dar Dar's 100-yard kickoff return at the end of the third quarter proved to be the winning points as the No. 6 Syracuse Orangemen defeated the No. 10 Colorado Buffaloes in the 22nd annual Fiesta Bowl.

A defensive battle in the first half saw Colorado go into intermission with a 7-6 lead, as the teams combined for just 226 total yards. A pair of John Biskup field goals saw the Orange take a 6-0 lead, but with 10 seconds left in the half, Kordell Stewart threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Sean Embree on fourth down, with Mitch Berger's PAT kick giving CU the slim one-point lead at the half.

The third quarter proved to be both pivotal and wild, with 29 points scored in just over a six-minute span. David Walker's 13-yard run with 6:22 left in the quarter put Syracuse back on top, 12-7, with a two-point conversion pass falling incomplete. Berger nailed a 38-yard field goal on CU's next possession to cut the lead to 12-10, but the 'Cuse went back up 19-10 on a spectacular 28-yard run by quarterback Marvin Graves. Stewart led the Buffs on an 82-yard drive in just over a minute, completing the march with a 16-yard TD pass to Charles Johnson, but Berger missed the point after and the score stood at 19-16.

Dar Dar performed his heroics on the next kickoff, rambling 100 yards as time expired in the quarter. Lamont Warren scored the day's final points on a six-yard run late in the game, with Berger again missing the PAT try. The Buffs got the ball back in the final minute, but could not muster a scoring drive.

The Buffaloes outgained the Orange, 370-265, including a 217-64 edge in the passing game. Syracuse neutralized the CU offensive attack by netting 178 yards on kickoff returns.

The Big Eight Conference

The University of Colorado is beginning its 45th year with the conference after being accepted into the league on Dec. 1, 1947 when the Big Six Conference changed to the Big Seven.

The Big Eight Conference, the official name of the league since 1964 when the old title Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MVIAA) was dropped, ranks as one of the strongest, most well-balanced, and most successful conferences in the country. The league is entering its 86th season of competition.

Three of the present members of the Big Eight — the University of Kansas, the University of Missouri, and the University of Nebraska — helped form the original organization on Jan. 12, 1907, with the University of Iowa and Washington University of St. Louis as the other charter members.

Iowa State University, then known as Ames College, and Drake University were added in 1908 to expand to seven schools. Iowa dropped to enter the Big Ten after the 1910-11 college years.

Kansas State University, then known as Kansas State College of Applied Science and Agriculture, was admitted in 1913. Grinnell (Iowa) College joined in 1919 and the University of Oklahoma in 1920. Oklahoma State University, then known as Oklahoma A&M College, withdrew from the Southwest Conference in 1925 to increase the conference to an all-time high 10 teams.

In a meeting at Lincoln, Neb., on May 19, 1928, six of the seven state institutions — Oklahoma A&M was the exception — formally organized a separate conference, MVIAA or the Big Six Conference. Colorado's addition made it the Big Seven and Oklahoma State rejoined its old MVIAA mates as a member on June 1, 1957, to change the name to the Big Eight.

The faculty athletic representatives (persons of professional rank who do not receive pay primarily for services rendered in connection with athletics or physical education) at each institution serve as the policy-directing group of the conference. The directors of athletics serve as the operating body or administrative agency.

Carl James is in his 13th year as the Commissioner of the Big Eight. The conference headquarters are located at 104 W. Ninth Street, Suite 408, in Kansas City, Mo. The office telephone number is 816/471-5088.

Prentice Gault and Tim Allen are the assistant commissioners, while Jeff Bollig handles the service bureau. John McClintock is the supervisor of officials.

Colorado Radio Network

The Colorado Football Network originates in Denver with KOA-Radio (850am) feeding the broadcast to 20 radio stations in the Rocky Mountain region.

85 KOA
NEWSRADIO

CU and KOA are entering the third year of a five-year contract, as the 50,000-watt Denver station and the Buffs were reunited in 1985. KOA did the CU broadcasts from 1940 until 1982. This is the third contract between CU and KOA since 1985, as the first two were three-year agreements.

Larry Zimmer handles the play-by-play chores with Kent Groshong providing the color commentary on the broadcasts. In addition, former CU All-American Bobby Anderson handles both pre- and postgame shows.

Zimmer is in his 20th season of doing CU football, as he was the voice of the Buffs from 1971 to 1981. A graduate of the University of Missouri, Zimmer previously had done play-by-play for four years (1966-69) at the University of Michigan (for both football and basketball). He also does play-by-play on Denver Bronco broadcasts, teaming with former CU All-American Dave Logan. Zimmer also was selected the Sportscaster-of-the-Year by the Colorado Broadcasting Association in 1988, 1990 and 1991. Groshong is in his ninth season providing the color with Zimmer, and has been familiar with CU athletics for over 15 years. He was the sports director at KBOL in Boulder from 1976 to 1981 and is a graduate of Butler (Ind.) University.

KOA also originates the Bill McCartney Talk Show, heard Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. during the season. The show, which is originated from the Clarion Harvest House in Boulder, goes out on the entire network and solicits callers from around the state.

Colorado Television Network

The University of Colorado and KCNC-TV will enter their 10th straight year together in one of the most unique television arrangements in college football. The Buffaloes are one of very few teams to have their games produced and shown by a major network affiliate.

In addition to airing "The Bill McCartney Show," the NBC affiliate (Channel 4 in Denver) will also originate at least four broadcasts this fall of CU games, both home and away. KCNC started to produce CU games live in 1985, and the station has done 36 such broadcasts since that season. It's been a good omen when KCNC has been on hand, as the Buffaloes are 31-5 in games produced by the station.

Another unique part of the CU-KCNC relationship has been when KCNC cannot televise the game live (usually due to starting times or College Football Association conflicts), the station has either "farmed" the game out to KTVD (Channel 20) or KDVR (Channel 31) in Denver, or has shown the game on a tape delayed basis. In 1992, the average rating was a 13.0 with a 40 share, both very healthy numbers.

Les Shapiro will handle the television play-by-play for the fourth straight season. Shapiro is KCNC's main sports anchor on the 5 and 10 p.m. news, which is rated number one in both time periods. Dave Logan is entering his ninth year as color analyst, as the former CU All American also is the host of McCartney's TV show. Logan was selected Sportscaster-of-the-Year by the Colorado Broadcasting Association in 1992. Mark McIntosh is in his sixth year as the station's chief CU reporter and sideline reporter on broadcasts.

Media Information

MEDIA CREDENTIALS for covering athletic events at the University of Colorado can be obtained by writing the Athletic Media Relations Office two weeks in advance of the scheduled contest. Requests which are approved will either be mailed or left at the will call window (located between gates 4 and 5 at Folsom Field, just off Colorado Avenue. Coverage of all CU athletic events dictate approval of press credentials for Colorado media outlets; radio and television stations must cover practice, the Big Four Huddle, and/or get postgame tape on a regular basis to qualify for credentials.

PHOTOGRAPHER CREDENTIALS will be issued only to officially recognized media outlets and/or individuals on special assignment. Only working photographers will be allowed on the sidelines. Photographers must have their passes displayed at all times on the sidelines, and must remain outside the 25-yard lines on both sides of the field. A limit of 25 sideline photo passes will be permitted for members of the media which cover the visiting team.

FAX SERVICE is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Please contact the Athletic Media Relations Office either in advance or on the day of the game.

TELEPHONE SERVICES are available on a first-come, first-served basis. If you need a telephone for your own use, it's suggested that you contact the campus office of U.S. West (303/492-5194, ask for Marianne Ashworth, or 787-0225, ask for Ginger Florence) to install a line. U.S. West will contact the Athletic Media Relations Office for the seat location for installation.

VISITING RADIO personnel desiring to broadcast athletic events from the University of Colorado should contact the Athletic Media Relations Office at the earliest possible date to request permission to broadcast. Once permission is granted in writing, the station is responsible for making its own arrangements with U.S. West (Ginger Florence, 787-0225). U.S. West will contact the Athletic Media Relations Office for booth assignment. Spotters and/or statisticians are available upon request (please give the Athletic Media Relations Office at least 72 hours before the event).

PRESS BOX SERVICES include play-by-play and statistical highlights at the end of each period. Full statistical facts and figures along with quotes from coaches and players will be available following the contest. The media will be escorted to the locker rooms following the event for postgame interviews. An informal luncheon will be served in the Press Box starting two hours prior to kickoff.

HANDICAP ACCESS . . . There is no elevator access to the Folsom Field press box facility. There are six flights of stairs (about 10 steps each) to reach the writer's level, and 10 flights of stairs to reach the photo level. Assistance to gain admittance to these levels will be provided upon request.

NO SMOKING POLICY . . . There is a no smoking policy in Folsom Field, including the press box, to conform with University of Colorado policy concerning smoking on campus. Those members of the media who do smoke will be directed to those areas of the stadium where smoking is permitted.

PARKING passes are limited. The media must request parking along with their credentials request. Media outlets covering the University of Colorado on a regular basis will have first priority.

FOLSOM FIELD is located in the University of Colorado campus at the corner of Colorado Ave. and Folsom St. Driving time from Denver's Stapleton Airport is approximately 45 minutes via the Denver-Boulder Turnpike (U.S. 36). The Press Box is located on the west side of the stadium, and the entrance for the media is on the west side of the field through Gate No. 1. The press box phone numbers are 303/492-5626 and 492-3209.

The University of Colorado has been cited for "Outstanding Press Box Working Services" in 1987 and 1992 by the Football Writers Association of America.

Denver-Boulder Metro Area Facts

- The Denver-Boulder metropolitan area is the 22nd largest (1.85 million) in the United States, according to the population statistics in the 1990 census. Denver is the 26th largest city in the census, with a population of 468,000.
- Denver, located just 25 miles southeast of the University of Colorado-Boulder campus, is the largest city in the Big Eight Conference area. Oklahoma City is 29th in the country, followed by Kansas City (31st) and St. Louis (34th) in the top 40.
- Boulder is not classified as a suburb of Denver; it's nestled in its own valley at the foothills of the rugged Rocky Mountains. Thus, CU students and employees can live and work with the knowledge that they're in the unique situation of being "close to a big city, yet far enough away."
- Called the "Mile High City" because it is exactly 5,280 feet above sea level, Denver's central location in the United States provides convenient access for the entire country. Denver currently utilizes Stapleton International Airport, which is the fourth busiest airport in the country (serving almost 200 U.S. cities and over two dozen foreign cities). The new Denver International Airport is scheduled to open in 1994 and will improve the service now available.
- Denver boasts three major league teams: the Broncos in the NFL, the Nuggets in the NBA, and the expansion Colorado Rockies in the National League (baseball). There are only six other colleges in addition to the University of Colorado that are unique in the fact that they are not located within a city, yet have three major league teams for their liking within a 25-mile drive.
- Boulder is a sports-oriented town, and was named the No. 1 outdoor sports town by Outdoor Magazine in 1990. It is home of the Boulder Boulder, the third largest 10K race in the nation (with over 35,000 runners and walkers every Memorial Day). Boulder is also the home and training ground for several of the world's Olympic-class athletes.

- As for the climate, there are over 320 days of sunshine annually in Colorado. It is not unusual to often have 60 and 70 degree days occasionally during the winter months, and the humidity hovers at a low percentage virtually year 'round. The large snowfalls are usually confined to the mountain areas, providing the base for the dozens of Colorado ski resorts and its number one economic resource.
